

WILSON WINS SENATE DIVER FIGHT, BUT HOUSE IS MENACE

UNITED STATES IS GERMANIZED, ASSERTION

own substitute and had introduced it merely to get an expression of the Senate on that issue.

The text of Senator Gore's addition to his original resolution and which takes with the warning resolution was as follows:

"Resolved, by the Senate, the House of Representatives concurring, That the sinking by a German submarine without notice or warning of an armed merchant vessel of her public enemy, resulting in the death of a citizen of the United States would constitute a just and sufficient cause of war between the United States and the German empire."

Several Senators explained that the double form of the question was responsible for the character of the vote. A few Senators wanted to vote on the question of killing an American on an unarmed merchantman as a cause of war in one vote.

Immediately after the vote in the Senate Senator Reed, Democrat, read a statement saying he felt it was highly important that the impression in Germany that the country and Congress was not behind the President should be removed and that, therefore, he was opposed to the Gore resolution.

While the Senate was voting House leaders were working. There was no doubt that the administration victory in the Senate was expected to solidify the sentiment in the House and the leaders looked for some favorable developments during the day.

President Wilson, after he had conferred with Acting Chairman Poy of the rules committee, determined to have a vote in the House even if a special rule containing a resolution were required to get it.

Insistence that a vote be taken by the rules committee action if necessary came after varying reports as to the stand of the foreign affairs committee. As yet no resolution has been agreed upon in the latter committee which would command a majority vote and there was no positive assurance today that any resolution would be reported by it. Chairman Flood expressed the hope that a satisfactory resolution would be drawn today and reported when the committee meets this afternoon.

Poy told members of the rules committee that he regarded the present situation above partisan politics and for that reason there would be secret sessions of the Democratic members to arrive at some plan of action. He wants a non-partisan vote.

In reading his resolution, Senator McCumber protested that debate could not be shut off and that either later today or tomorrow he would call up his resolution.

Senator Clarke, Democrat, of Arkansas, also protested against the Senate's action, although he voted with the majority.

"There is no overlooking the fact," he said, "that all the declarations of this government have led in a certain direction, that official America at least was interested in the success of one of the contestants, and it does not require much ingenuity to determine which one."

"I am out of patience with those constantly seeking to magnify the importance of the utterances of the President."

PRESIDENT SAYS OUTCOME IS PLEASING

Representative Poy: You will proceed immediately to confere up some scheme to still debate, and then take the vote on this resolution, so that I may have been the expression of the people of this country? There would have been immediate condemnation so severe and so general that there would have been another remarkable and immediate change of views."

Senator Borah continued that the vote was of no value to the President as an expression of the sentiment of the Senate.

"It is most unfortunate that we disposed of it as we did," he said. "I am not afraid of war if it is necessary to protect American rights. I am not afraid of sacrifice. We cannot hope to play our part in the world if we are not brave enough to make a sacrifice for our rights."

"I am afraid of the subversion, the degradation of the American people, the degradation of the American people, this body will fall from the esteem in which it has been held by the American people when in a great world crisis like this with the eyes of the world centered upon us, we come here and cringingly crawl to our destination under the direction of some power without the chamber. I would rather that a battleship be sunk than to have the honor of this Senate compromised before the world."

Senator Lodge said he thought the administration victory was overwhelming. He said that the course of the Senate and contended that no more expeditions method could have been adopted to serve notice to the world that the subject matter of the resolution was overwhelmingly disapproved in the Senate.

Senator Gore said he thought the administration victory was a mixed one. "I am content," said Senator Gore. "I had another resolution which I would like to have submitted, but I could get no opportunity. That would have resolved that the executive department of the government is vested with authority to carry on diplomatic negotiations just as Congress is vested with authority to declare war. It also would have expressed the view that the executive should not interfere with Congress in the conduct of diplomatic negotiations. I guess, however, will not pass it."

Senator Lodge of Massachusetts declared the Senate's attitude could not be confused because of the parliamentary entanglement.

In tabulating the McCumber resolution along with the others, Senator Lodge said, "The Senate went on record as opposing a direct warning to Americans and against any interference with executive authority. McCumber's resolution slightly modified, in order, but it will go to the calendar and there will be no effort to pass it."

When the Senate assembled promptly at 11 o'clock today all administration Senators were in their seats waiting for the usual round of morning business to be passed over so Senator Stone could make the agreed motion to table the Gore resolution.

Senator Gore, author of the resolution which the administration forces were ready to kill and who yesterday made the sensational declaration that he had heard President Wilson expected war with Germany, was led to his seat by his secretary, the cynosure of all eyes in the chamber. The administration leaders, confident and prepared, sat back awaiting the proper moment.

Hurry the procedure it was agreed to dispense with reading the journal, the usual gist of memorials and petitions. The floor, crowded with Senators and Representatives and the galleries packed by a throng which included the President's wife, fairly hummed with expectation.

Senator Gore's Resolution

WASHINGTON, March 3.—The resolution introduced by Senator Gore and concerning action on which Congress and President have been at issue for nearly a week, is as follows:

Whereas, A number of leading powers of the world are now engaged in a war of unexampled proportions; and

Whereas, The United States is happily at peace with all of the belligerent nations; and

Whereas, It is equally the desire and the interest of the American people to remain at peace with all nations; and

Whereas, The President has recently offered fresh and signal proofs of the superiority of diplomacy to butchery as a method of settling international disputes; and

Whereas, The right of American citizens to travel on unarmed belligerent vessels has recently been secured by the President's respect and intolability; and

Whereas, The right of American citizens to travel on armed belligerent vessels rather than upon unarmed vessels is essential to their life, liberty or property, nor to the independence, dignity or security of the United States; and

Whereas, Congress alone has been vested with the power to declare war, which involves the obligations to prevent by all proper means consistent with the honor and vital interest of the nation now, therefore, be it

Resolved, by the Senate and the House of Representatives concurring, That it is the sense of the Congress, vested as it is with the sole power to declare war, that all persons owing allegiance to the United States should, in behalf of their own safety and the vital interest of the United States, forbear to exercise the right to travel as passengers upon any armed vessel of any belligerent power, whether such vessel be armed for offensive or defensive purposes, and it is the further sense of the Congress that no passport should be issued or renewed by the secretary of state or by any one acting under him to be used by any person owing allegiance to the United States for purposes of travel upon any such armed vessel of a belligerent power.

How They Voted

The roll-call was as follows:

SENATORS SCORE ADMINISTRATION ATTITUDE

He did not see how the United States could do anything but sever diplomatic relations with any nation which killed Americans in violation of international law. While both Secretary Lansing and Count von Bernstorff, the German ambassador, have flatly declined to comment upon the statement regarding the possibility of war attributed to President Wilson by Senator Gore, and later denied by the White House, it was learned today that mention of the result of a break of diplomatic relations had been discussed quite casually and informally by the secretary and the ambassador late in January of this year.

According to authoritative information the discussion came at a time Secretary Lansing informed the ambassador exactly what kind of a communication from Germany would settle the Lusitania case in a map-fully satisfactory to the United States. The ambassador is said to have informed Lansing that he believed his government might change some of the expressions used in the document which the secretary had indicated would be acceptable. They agreed that the ambassador should submit the document to his government and see what changes it would suggest, which the ambassador did. At the same time, quite informally, he is understood to have asked the secretary what he thought would be the ultimate result should Germany fail to meet the requirements of the United States.

Secretary Lansing, it is said, told the ambassador that in event of a complete disagreement on the subject the United States might be obliged to break off diplomatic relations. The ambassador is reliably reported to have replied that he fully understood to have asked the secretary have added the hope that nothing of the kind ever would occur.

The ambassador pointed out that with diplomatic relations severed there would be no agency by which the enthusiasm of naval commanders could be held in check and that some circumstances are almost certain to occur to lead to hostilities. The ambassador also is represented as having pointed out that the modifications in the conduct of submarine warfare made since the beginning of the war had been solely because of regard for the wishes of the United States.

The authority from whom this information was obtained said it should be understood that the ambassador was only expressing his own personal opinions, and that the conversation with Secretary Lansing was absolutely informal and not to be regarded as significant of anything.

WHITE STAR LINER WILL BE ARMED

NEW YORK, March 3.—The White Star liner Canopic, which sailed today for Italian ports with three Americans in the first cabin, will take on armament when she arrives at Gibraltar, it was announced by the White Star line today. The armament will be removed when the ship again arrives at Gibraltar on her return trip, it was stated.

The notification that the Canopic would be thus armed was received by the White Star line early today from British admiralty. It was announced, and the order also includes the Celtic, plying between Boston and Mediterranean ports and which was due at Gibraltar yesterday. The Celtic left Boston February 21.

SENATORS DISAGREE ON VOTE'S MEANING

WASHINGTON, March 3.—In his speech Senator Reed assailed the sensational discussion in the Senate yesterday.

"I believe the effect of these utterances yesterday are to assert that in this nation are those considering the interests of Germany rather than of the United States," he said. "There has been much talk of traitors. I believe it would be difficult to find in the whole United States one thousand men who would not assert the highest degree of loyalty to the country."

UPPER HOUSE MAY TAKE FURTHER ACTION

Senator Jones, Republican, declared the tabling of the resolution had further befogged rather than clarified any issue.

"Nothing has been decided today, except that the Senate of the United States can be gagged absolutely," he said. "We have not passed on the issue. We have only done like the ostrich, and in the face of danger have covered our heads in the sand. I voted against the resolution on general principles. A motion to table is always made either to cut off debate or to avoid an issue."

"Have we complied with the request of the President? What did he say to Representative Poy? That he felt justified in asking permission to urge an early vote on the resolution in order to give an opportunity for full public discussion, and this is the full public discussion we have."

"Perhaps the Senator from Washington is not in touch with the subterranean passageway to the White House," suggested Senator Borah.

"It is easy to introduce another resolution," continued Senator Jones. "The Senate has not settled the issue yet. The President is not advised on the sentiment of the Senate on this proposition, and the people of this country and the nations abroad know it."

TO REPORT ARMY INCREASE MEASURE

Peace Strength of 700,000 Is Favored by House Committee.

WASHINGTON, March 3.—Final agreement was reached by the House military committee yesterday on its bill for the increase of the army, and it will be reported unanimously to the House early next week. In final figures, the measure would authorize the formation of an army composed of regulars, national guardsmen and federal volunteers with a total peace strength of approximately 700,000 men.

It provides for a maximum strength of 170,000 fighting troops by the regular army, for a minimum of 425,000 for the national guard within five years and for organization of federal volunteers through an extension of a summer training camp idea. It is estimated that 100,000 men can be enrolled in the latter force.

Commission Named to Investigate Strike

WASHINGTON, March 3.—Secretary Wilson appointed a commission, consisting of John A. Moffitt of New Jersey, Hywell Davies of Kentucky and William A. Foster of the labor department, to investigate the strike which has halted construction on the Alaskan railway. The commission will sail from Seattle March 18.

The American Federation of Labor today telegraphed the strikers, advising them to return to work pending the investigation.

Although 1000 workmen are involved, less than 100 have quit work. Strikers demand for an increase of from 3 1/2 to 50 cents an hour has been refused.

Papers of Estate in Brandeis Hearing

WASHINGTON, March 3.—A version of the management of the estate of Samuel D. Warren, New England paper manufacturer, as revealed by papers in the office of Louis D. Brandeis, was laid before the Senate committee investigating charges against Brandeis' confirmation as justice of the Supreme Court today. Brandeis was counsel in the management of the Warren estate.

The contents of the papers were stated by Edward F. McClenahan, a member of the Brandeis law firm, who was expected that his testimony would be the last offered by those in favor of confirmation.

Rains Due to Fall in This Vicinity

A sprinkling on the top of Mt. Tamalpais and a light shower at Point Reyes were the only traces of moisture in California from the large storm which is hovering off the North Pacific. U. S. Weather Forecaster G. H. Wilson this morning announced that he could not understand why the rain had not reached the bay cities before this and predicted that it was certainly on the way. The disturbance to the northward is one of the largest of the season and unless it should be carried eastward by heavy winds, this storm should be right in its path.

GERMANS RENEW VERDUN ATTACK

Last night in the Woerre district, but French forces held the Germans in check by their curtain of fire.

The artillery of the Germans has been active in the vicinity of Malancourt and near Haucourt.

Fort Vaux is the chief defense of Verdun from the northeast. It is immediately south of the village of Vaux, against which violent assaults have been repeatedly launched by the Germans.

Meanwhile apparently in an effort to lighten the pressure against the French by necessitating the diversion of large forces, the British have struck a sudden and powerful blow against the Germans in the Ypres district.

The German attacks northeast of Verdun are believed to have a twofold object. At first reports a large force was moved up within the wrecked embankments of Fort Douaumont. It is to relieve these heroic Brandenburgers as well as to throw men forward into Fort Vaux, two miles to the southeast, that the German attacks are being made.

The renewed violence of the battle indicates, according to the best military opinion, that the Germans are determined to go through at all costs with their desperate gamble at Verdun.

GERMANS TAKE 1000 MORE PRISONERS

BERLIN, March 3.—German troops cleared the village of Douaumont and pushed their lines to the west and to the south of the village and of the armored fort yesterday, according to the official announcement issued today by the German army headquarters staff.

The statement adds that more than 1000 prisoners were taken and also that a number of heavy guns were captured.

The official statement relates that German airmen dropped bombs in the vicinity of the main Verdun fort and that to the east of Douaumont, Lieutenant Immanuel shot down a British airplane.

GERMANS WIN 457 SQUARE MILES

LONDON, March 3.—In eleven days of fighting around Verdun the Teutons have won 457 square miles of territory. They have driven the French from their field fortifications north of Verdun and have cleared the entire plain of the Woerre, hurling the defenders back to the forts on the chain of crests known as the heights of the Meuse.

These forts are now under a terrific bombardment, not only from the 12 and 17-inch German howitzers, but also from the famous "Big Bertha's." These great 42-centimeter guns are mounted as far as fifteen miles back of the battle front, according to dispatches. A shot from one is enough to reduce the most modern fort to twisted ruins.

POSITIONS IMPREGNABLE.

French military experts express confidence that the French positions on the heights are impregnable. Before advancing to storm the forts the Germans would have to clear the rough slopes, under a hurricane of fire. These slopes have been fortified with line after line of trenches and entanglements. Great areas have been mined and tunneled until the pressure of a button entire divisions could be blown to pieces.

So far dispatches from Berlin insist the German losses have not been severe. French estimates set them at from 120,000 to 150,000.

The Berlin reports, however, state that the German campaign plans have been directed especially to evading the possibility of great human losses. All arms of the service have collaborated with the result that the entire advance has been marked by tidal wave surges of men only after the artillery had effectively silenced the French batteries for the moment at least.

"Any effort to capture Verdun is doomed to failure," writes Lieutenant Colonel Roussel, the famous French military expert.

"The Meuse hills, east of Verdun, are so strongly fortified and defended with big guns and machine guns that they cannot be pierced no matter how many men are sent against them. They may well be regarded as impregnable. The German losses are already enough. It would only be slaughter to send brave troops against the French defense on the Meuse heights."

EXPERT SAYS FRENCH MUST QUIT OR PERISH

BERLIN, March 3.—Major Morhart, military critic of the Berliner Tage-

EARL 'CALL' REALLY TWO ONE SIGNED, OTHER PRINTED

This is a copy of the "call" to Republicans to get together to decide upon a "harmony" program which Guy C. Earl, regent of the University of California, laid before Victor H. Metcalf and got his signature thereto. It is in commendable form and no Republican could reasonably have objected to signing it.

"The undersigned Republicans, believing that the sentiment of the Republican voters of California is overwhelmingly for harmonious action on the part of all who are opposed to a continuance of the national Democratic administration, and that, in order to insure victory to the Republican party, a consolidation of the Republican and Progressive parties should take place, and that the nomination at Chicago in June of the candidate for the Presidency should be satisfactory to both, hereby agree to meet with these ends in view to select a ticket of delegates to the national Republican convention for presentation to the Republican voters of the State of California in the forthcoming Presidential primary election."

This is a copy of the "call" which Guy C. Earl, regent of the University of California, publicly announced through the newspapers of California the day before the Earl convenes met, had been signed by Victor H. Metcalf, Robert N. Hulla and Guy C. Earl. It was substituted for the call Mr. Metcalf had signed without Mr. Metcalf's knowledge.

"The undersigned Republicans, believing in the success of the Republican party in the nation and in the consolidation of the Republican and Progressive parties and the nomination at Chicago in June of a candidate for President satisfactory to both; and believing and demanding that the Republican party in the State of California shall be a party of progress rather than a party of reaction. AND THAT THE ADVANCES GOVERNMENTALLY OF THE LAST FIVE YEARS IN CALIFORNIA BE PRESERVED, agree to meet with these ends in view and to elect a ticket of delegates to the national Republican convention for presentation to the Republican voters of the State of California."

METCALF HAS HIS NAME TAKEN OFF EARL TICKET

tonight with members of the Republican state central committee every effort be made to reach a harmonious conclusion, to the end that a strong and representative body of Republicans be selected for delegates to the Republican national convention. No man should be selected as a candidate for delegate concerning whose Republicanism there has been or could be any question. While I deeply appreciate the action of the committee in selecting me as one of the proposed delegates, I cannot, for the reasons given by me to you in our recent interview, consent to the use of my name. I therefore request that my name be dropped from the list of proposed delegates.

VICTOR H. METCALF.

In connection with the Metcalf withdrawal, it develops that the call he originally signed differed from the one given to the press last Friday, the day before the meeting of the Earl conference, and purporting to have been signed by Metcalf and others. The TRIBUNE publishes both today. The one signed by Metcalf could be subscribed to by any Republican sincerely desiring party harmony. It contained no endorsement of the state administration.

RUPTION MAY FOLLOW.

It is likely that John A. Britton will follow the course of Mr. Metcalf in withdrawing from the Earl ticket. In an interview he says:

"As I said yesterday, I am for harmony in the Republican party, and if this movement does not make for harmony, I am out. That was what I said yesterday, and the situation is unchanged today."

The convention tomorrow will be made up of members of the Republican state executive committee, the Republican state central committee, and all other members of that committee, and the members of the various state Republican county committees of the state.

The statement of Metcalf concerning his withdrawal from the Earl ticket follows:

"In signing this call I felt that every effort ought to be made to bring the Republicans and Progressives together on a platform of principles acceptable to all, and with a view of nominating the strongest man possible for President, and that no man, concerning whose Republicanism there has been or can be any question should be selected as a delegate. The conference was called for Republicans and for no other party."

"I regard this as the most vital period in the nation's history, and I consider it of paramount importance that a strong, virile man be nominated, and one having the confidence not only of the American people, but the respect of all foreign governments as well."

"When it was suggested that I go as a delegate on a ticket to be selected, I declared it to be impossible for me to do so, and gave my reasons therefor. When, however, my name had been selected as the conference as one of the delegates at large I immediately wired to Mr. Earl demanding that my name be taken off the ticket."

"The call was in the interest of harmony. My hope is that good judgment will prevail and that members of the conference, as well as members of the state central committee, will put to one side their personal feelings and prejudices and agree on a ticket that will be acceptable to the Republican voters of this state."

MAYOR'S ADVISER TO RETURN EAST

explained, pending the settlement of difficulties in Mexico.

COMPLEXION CHANGES.

Many of the city appointive officials were chosen by the new administration when Mayor Davis and Commissioners Edwards and Jackson were political allies. They are, therefore, compromise appointees. The new alignment, that of Commissioners Jackson, Anderson and Bacon, has changed the complexion of this situation and the commissioners are surveying the city and county situation to see whether appointments cannot be made that will strengthen them politically. It is considered that from a political point of view there is not a great deal of strength secured either through the city attorney, Paul C. Morr; City Treasurer F. A. Cooley, or the present chief of police, W. F. Woods. L. C. Cummings, the city clerk, has the backing of the Brotherhood of Railway Employees, but it is doubtful whether this would save him if an advantageous trade could be effected that would obtain political strength.

E. L. Arnest, president of the newly organized, or reorganized, City and County Taxpayers' League, has been mentioned as the possible successor to City Treasurer Cooley. Commissioner Edwards, in whose department the appointment falls, has declared that he favors a banker or a financial expert for the place.

hail, commenting on the Verdun battle, says the defensive front of Verdun on the north and east has been reduced to about sixty square kilometers, which gives the Germans an excellent advantage for their concentric artillery fire and the employment of their troops.

The writer, according to the Overseas News Agency, pays tribute to the bravery of the French troops in coming to "iron grips" with the Germans, but says "military valor perhaps before Verdun or drags itself crippled home."

FACTORY MEN WAR ON EXHIBIT PLAN

where. It is a direct insult to the manufacturers."

"Yes, and they pay 85 per cent of the taxes, too!" shouted V. K. Sturges. "Look here, this country needs some payrolls. Factories make them. And they want to shove us up on the second floor of this building. Do you think you can put a big gas engine on the second floor? Would you spend several hundred dollars on an exhibit under the rafters? No! The factory men won't stand for it. We fought to get the building and now we'll fight to get our rights in it or quit exhibiting."

"Some naps—ditching us for the vegetables!" shouted Sturges.

"I am sorry to start a scrap," said Phillips, "but it seems some one has to go. Nichols has done big work for the county and has turned down better pay jobs. He should stay. Parsons is our factory expert and a noted one, and we will fight to keep him. There is, then, the secretary and assistant processor to be considered."

"Shade, the assistant, I believe married Supervisor Murphy's niece," remarked O. A. Kenyon.

"Anyway, that is a matter for the commission to work out, as long as the two experts are retained," said Phillips.

"If there's any cutting to do let Murphy get rid of his relative's job," better Sturges. "Let's have a factory payroll first—and then we can buy all the scenery we want."

A resolution of thanks to Secretary J. E. Culp for his work in landing the exhibit building was passed and he was requested to appear with the manufacturers in their protest Monday.

Destroyer Hit; Goes to Bottom

Viking, British, Mine Victim

NEW YORK, March 3.—The British destroyer Viking was blown up by a mine on or about January 29 and all of her officers and crew, numbering about seventy, were lost, according to word which reached here today in a letter to relatives of the commander, Thomas Christopher Williams. No previous intimation that the Viking had been destroyed has come from the war zone.

The Viking belonged to the F class of destroyers. She was built in 1909 and was of 1000 tons. She had armament of two 4-inch guns and two 15-inch torpedo tubes, and was formerly known as an "ocean going destroyer."

YOUNG BRIDE BIDS ADIEU TO DOCTOR

He Is 60; She Is 20; Now the Divorce Court Will Part Pair.

Dr. Gabor Koenigstein, chiropractor of Oakland and San Francisco and comedian referee of boxing contests on both sides of the bay is seeking a divorce from his wife Maude, who is now in Sacramento. "Doc" is past 60 years of age and his wife is scarcely 20. Among the allegations he makes against her are that, principally, she refused to wear her wedding ring although she wore $3000 worth of diamonds he bought her and rode around in an automobile which he presented her with.

"I raised that girl from the time she left high school," complains the aged husband.

"But now it is all over. I would have been willing to take her back had she been willing that way. She can stay away now."

"She told me that she had several other fellows. She can keep them if she wants to."

Koenigstein adopted his wife and married her while she was his ward. The troubles between them date back to more than a year ago.

METHOD ALWAYS SUCCEEDS.

"The funny papers" frequently tell of the man who sought to find a gas leak with a lighted match and found it. W. Briggs, 2124 East Fifteenth street, searched for a leak in the gasoline tank of his automobile. There was a small explosion, but Briggs escaped without injury. The auto was damaged by fire.

WHITEHEAD CLOSES DEAL.

Property on the east side of Madison street, south of Lake, has been sold by R. Whitehead to James K. Allen, the deal involving approximately $100,000, according to instruments recorded today.

Mexico City Is Goal of Diaz

Reported Marching on Carranza Forces

NEW YORK, March 3.—General Felix Diaz, now reported to be marching on Mexico City in a revolutionary movement against the Carranza de facto government there, has gained control of 80 per cent of the line of the Mexican Southern railroad, according to an announcement made by the Diaz Junta here. A strong detachment of troops under General Rigenio Aguilar, it was said, had advanced in a northwestern direction from Oaxaca City. The only opposition met thus far, the Junta here says it has been advised, was at Ciudad Culcutlan, where, after a fight lasting an hour and a half, the Carranza garrison was put to flight.

On the Remington and Nowhere Else

Here are two facts about the Remington which every typewriter buyer should know:

1. The Remington Column Selector adds 25 per cent. to the letter writing speed of the typist. This is not a claim or an estimate. It is a definite fact—proved and established by any number of comparative tests.

2. The Column Selector is a Remington feature exclusively. No other machine has it—or anything like it.

Adds 25 per cent. to the speed
Adds nothing to the price

Oh, yes, other machines have devices which look like it, with the five keys, etc. It is easy for a salesman, who knows the supreme merit of the Remington feature, to call them "column selector" keys. But there is no other device on any other typewriter which can do what the Remington Column Selector does.

The Remington Column Selector is the only feature on any typewriter which permits instantaneous setting of the carriage at any desired point on the line.

It is the only feature which provides this setting by either forward or backward movement.

It is the only feature which provides true "express service" with no stop-to-stop movement in reaching any writing point.

And there are the features which make the 25 per cent. speed gain.

Let us show you the real and only Column Selector—on the Model 10 Remington.

Tangle Ended by Court's Decision

MARTINEZ, March 3.—That the handing of a deed to property to the agent of the grantor with instructions to hold the same until called for by her and that the filing of the instrument by the agent upon the death of his principal without handing over the document to the grantee or his agent, does not constitute a valid and legal delivery of a deed, was the decision of Judge Ernest H. Hoffman in the suit which he filed against Henry C. Brann.

Martha Lena Hoffman executed a deed of all of her property, worth $25,000, to the children of H. C. Brann, cutting off her husband, many years her junior, without a penny, and handed the deed to Robert Wallace of Brentwood. Upon her death Wallace recorded the document. Hoffman then sued to have the deed set aside on the ground that there had been no delivery and an advisory jury a few weeks ago gave him judgment, which verdict was affirmed by the court.

CHURCH SOCIAL

An interesting social event is scheduled for tonight at the Fruitvale Methodist church, corner of Boston avenue and school street. Refreshments, a silver offering and a program will be features of the evening.

Substitute Clerks Wait U. S. Mail Jobs

The fourth of a series of meetings of the substitute railway postal clerks of this vicinity was held last night at the Federal building in San Francisco. A temporary organization has been perfected, and Anthony S. Johnson, 3010 Harrison street, San Francisco, is chairman. Records were produced showing that approximately 100 substitute clerks are on the call list in this division, that they have been able to obtain only a few days' work now and then while awaiting appointment as regular railway postal clerks for the past two years or so. Average wage per month during past year ranged from $14.97 in May to $23.25 in August.

ROADS FOR PREPAREDNESS

PITTSBURGH, March 3.—Good roads as an aid to national preparedness were urged in resolutions adopted at the convention of the American Road Builders' Association. Other resolutions adopted urged the passage of laws in each state establishing reasonable limits for the weight, dimensions and speed of heavy motor vehicles and a serial form of bond which would provide that the principal be paid off yearly instead of the accumulation of a sinking fund.

California Exiles in New York Will Dine

NEW YORK, March 3.—The annual banquet of the California society of New York will be held at the Biltmore hotel tonight. Exiles of the Golden State to the number of 200 will gather. A program of unusual interest has been arranged. Musical numbers will be rendered by a quartet of women besides several well-known operatic stars.

John Hays Hammond will preside. Among the speakers will be Frank L. Brown, who was director of the Panama-Pacific exposition; John C. Montgomery, Walter W. Price, Edward J. McGanney, J. O'Hara Cosgrave and Henry Varian.

Acceptances have been received from Mr. and Mrs. William Randolph Hearst, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Atkin, Charles D. Hillis, Clarence H. Mackay and other officers of the Postal Telegraph company, Ralph H. Stubbs, Frank E. Waterman and Edward H. Clark.

The officers of the society are: President, John Hays Hammond; vice-president, William Randolph Hearst; Clarence H. Mackay, Ogden Mills and Frank D. Waterman; secretary-treasurer, Henry Varian, and general secretary, Maxwell Wagner.

BABY WEEK

A Nation-Wide Event

The thought of all America is to be concentrated on the welfare of the little ones the week March 4th to 11th

Women's Clubs, Hospitals and Civic Bodies with the helpful co-operation of the Government's Women's Bureau have planned many helpful things for conserving the health and promoting the welfare of Uncle Sam's babies, the coming week. Wide publicity is to be given throughout all the country to those facts that will aid the healthful growth of children.

The Right Clothes Promote Baby's Health

Sanitary Underwear that is soft and comfortable against the skin, underwear that fits and does not rub the tender flesh; attractive outer garments that tend to educate the taste of children for dainty and pretty apparel, that gives them a personal pride, self respect and the self confidence that comes from being well dressed—these are very, very essential things to children's welfare and here is where a well-outfitted baby shop like CAPWELLS proves a wonderful help to mothers. We specialize on clothes for children that combine utility, beauty and low cost for good quality.

Special Exhibition this week of Children's Clothes All Mothers Invited

Whether you intend to buy now or not you can gain much useful knowledge from a visit of inspection. Our salespeople will take pleasure in showing and explaining the stocks. Babies' first clothes will be made an important part of the exhibition.

REPUDIATE ACTION OF OLD LEAGUE

City and County Group Pass Resolutions at Session.

Resolutions repudiating the action of the "executive committee" of the Taxpayers' League were passed at a meeting of the City and County Taxpayers' League held at 1715 Telegraph avenue, last night. The membership of the new organization is made up almost entirely of former members of the Taxpayers' League, and according to E. L. Arnest, chairman of the new organization, the "executive committee" is composed of Dr. L. F. Herrick and John Somers.

The new organization also passed resolutions repudiating "The Budget," a publication which formerly officially represented the parent organization.

There was considerable discussion as to what had become of the "Committee of Fifty" which Mayor Davis announced he would appoint as an advisory body when he made his inaugural address.

"Where is this committee?" Thomas J. Thompson asked. "What functions is it performing? Are the members advising the mayor? If they are, what are their names?"

It was decided to investigate whether the mayor had appointed such an advisory body, and to ascertain, if possible, why, if he had not done so, he had failed to keep his promise.

HELD SIX HOURS IN COAL BIN.
ELKHART, Ind., March 3.—Clarence Todd was held six hours in a coal bin before a rescue party could reach him. He went through a crust that had been warmed on the top and his legs were

SHOOTS BOY RIVAL AFTER MANY YEARS

The Love of Girl Who Elope Promptly Man to Kill.

NEW YORK, March 3.—Two men brushed shoulders at West Broadway and Spring street, turned, then paused as one thought he recognized the other.

"Aren't you Alessandro Guinto? Didn't you come from Naples?" asked the smaller of the two.

The face of the questioned man grew pale as he, too, saw something familiar in the face of the other. Then, but sprang back and grabbed for a revolver. Guinto, taken by surprise, had barely reached his weapon when he felt, with a bullet through his right hip. Two more shots entered his body before his assailant fled.

But the short man had waited too long. A policeman seized him and he was taken to a police station, where he is said not only to have admitted the shooting, but that he hoped his victim would die.

It was found that the shooting was the result of a fifteen years' search by Joseph Aceno, who wore in weak vengeance of Guinto when he eloped with Aceno's beloved sweetheart, from Naples, Italy. Aceno traced the pair to New York, then to Chicago and later to Denver, but he had not seen his rival until the two men in New York. Guinto, who lives in Paterson, N. J., is at St. Vincent's hospital.

He held tightly until the rescuers saved a hole in the side of the bin, allowing the coal to run out.

SLAYER OF FAMILY CONFESSES

Father, Mother and Infant Are Beaten to Death

Employee Says He Struck to Conceal Crime of Forgery

OXNARD, Cal., March 3.—Louis Fortine, a ranch hand, burned last Wednesday night the home of Peter Furrer, a rancher living at Ocean View, near here, after he had killed Furrer, his young wife and 10-month-old baby with an iron bar. Arrested on suspicion of being implicated in the crime, Fortine made a complete confession to Sheriff E. C. Martin and Don C. Bowker, district attorney, according to a statement today by the sheriff.

Fortine confessed that he had forged his employer's name on a check for $250 and then killed Mr. and Mrs. Furrer in order to prevent his arrest for the first crime, according to the sheriff. He killed the man and woman with an iron bar. Then, not knowing what disposition to make of the baby, killed it also.

After the murder, Fortine was said to have fled. He returned again last night and set fire to the ranch house in an effort to hide all his wrongdoings.

The fire was discovered by Frank Eastwood and C. Johnson, neighboring ranchers. They hurried to the place, but found the bodies of Mr. and Mrs. Furrer and their baby were found in the ruins.

Suspicion was first because of the fact that from the appearance of the bodies, the couple apparently had been fully dressed despite the fact that the fire occurred late at night.

Fortine, the ranch hand, was questioned. His answers, officers said, were evasive and he was brought to the Oxnard jail. After several days of questioning the prisoner was said to have broken down, telling the entire story of his crimes.

A small band of citizens met here at midday to discuss the question of lynching Fortine, according to reports circulated here today. The men disbanded when the leader selected refused to take part in the action contemplated, it was said. Sheriff McMartin stated today that Fortine had given further details of the slaying, in which the prisoner said that he had been planning revenge against his employer for two weeks because of a reprimand.

Steps probably will be taken to examine Fortine as to his sanity, the sheriff said.

Overrules Chief's Recommendation

The city council today granted permission to G. D. Glenn to establish an auto market and exchange at Nineteenth and Broadway. Chief of Police W. V. Anderson recommended against the permit, being granted, but was overruled by the council. Technical difficulties in the way of paying M. K. Miller, consulting engineer, $2500 back salary, were discussed and referred to the city attorney to be straightened out.

The Ladies Relief Corps of Lyon Post, G. A. R., petitioned the city council to keep the American flag flying over the City Hall every day. The matter was referred to Commissioner Anderson.

Market Commission to Meet With Farmers

A general call for a meeting of the Delta landholders and tenants has been issued by Director Harris Weirald of the State Market Commission of California, when the work of the enterprise will be discussed in detail. Farmers of the Sacramento Delta, representing fully 75,000 acres, will be present at the session, and the call urges those interested to advise the market director, at his office, 325 Market street, San Francisco, whether or not they will be present. The session will take place at the Palace Hotel, San Francisco, on March 9.

School Children at 6 Save Sum of $150

HAYWARD, March 3.—Juvenile financial prodigies, several of whom have bank accounts of over $150 are the outcome of a savings bank system at the Hayward grammar school. The pupils have $480 in the savings bank, which has an average of $5.10 per capita for the 950 children. This sum has been saved since the fall of 1914, when the school savings bank was instituted.

Six-year-old financial magicians have bank accounts of $150 and over, while many of the boys and girls of the higher grades have saved considerably more than this sum. The pupils in most cases saved up their deposits by working out of school hours. Hayward children are said to have broken a record in the state for school savings.

M'GREGOR ASKS FOR HARBOR FACILITIES

Commerce Men Hear Plea of President of Iron Works.

Urging that a bascule bridge, doing away with the long waits and consequent tie-ups in traffic caused by the operation of the present swing bridges, be built as soon as possible, Charles McGregor, president of the Harbor Development Committee of the Oakland Chamber of Commerce yesterday, John A. McGregor, head of the Union Iron Works, told in detail of the plans of his company for building a number of large ships at the United Engineering works. He laid particular stress on the need of absolute accessibility in the work of building big vessels, and dwelt on the need of a channel and a bascule bridge not only to place the engineering works in a better position for its work, but as a benefit to the whole harbor.

"Two of the biggest needs of the inner harbor are a bascule bridge and a wider channel," he declared. "The removal of the present swing bridges is imperative, and I believe the bascule bridge would solve the problem."

Joseph J. Flynn, vice-president of the iron works, also dwelt on the need of a better bridge system and better traffic facilities.

Captain J. F. Moser of the Alaska Packers Association declared that his company had in view a $200,000 dredging project for the harbor, together with the erection of buildings and various improvements. The possibility of such work, he declared, rested largely on the possibility of good communications for the spending of the big sums involved would not be justified in a harbor where traffic was impeded. This plan and the necessity of a quick-acting bridge to insure its success, was urged upon the Board of Supervisors at the Mayor Francis Harbort of Alameda and his committee appeared to ask the board's co-operation and the appointment of the body representing the Supervisors at the present time in meetings held to discuss the project.

President Joseph H. King, Harrison S. Robinson, chairman of the harbor committee, J. R. Christie of the committee and W. C. Smith, president of the Alameda Chamber of Commerce, who is a member of the committee named by Mayor Harbort to work on the plan, also spoke, urging action to correct the impediments at the Webster street bridge.

The guests at the luncheon were Mayor Samuel C. Irving of Berkeley, Joseph R. Knowland, Harry S. Anderson, Oakland Public Works Commission Harbor Manager W. W. Lewis and Secretary J. E. Caine of the Chamber of Commerce.

"Shipbuilding is more active than ever before," declared McGregor. "In fact, my plant has orders eighteen months ahead to cover the building of ships. Any ship can be launched in the future, but the bridge problem is a serious one. It is not only a hindrance but a menace to navigation."

Mr. McGregor urged that a strong delegation from the Chamber of Commerce be present at the meeting to be held in the Supervisors' rooms by Lieutenant-Colonel Thomas H. Rice, when the bridge problem will be considered, and declared that it was imperative that the Chamber stand behind the project. "The plan of closing the bridges at set hours will never work," he declared, "because of course we cannot control tides and when the tide is up in the time ships must move, especially the big ones we want here."

Dr. Smith pledged the aid of Alameda in the matter and Mayor Irving promised Berkeley's support in the project of bettering the harbor conditions.

Courage to Ask May Lead Him to Career

AKRON, March 3.—Bernardo Frank, eighteen, yearning to be an artist though he swung a pitch in the local hotel, did not like his occupation, but Giuseppe Frank, Furnace street, his stepfather, told him young men should go on digging and forget ambition. Bernardo's longing could not be discouraged. He decided to try to make a career of it. Driven by his ambition he timidly entered the office of W. S. Dixey, director of charities and told his story. Dixey was taken by the youth's appeal. He decided to help him. He took him to the office of the city engineer, where he will not be so tired and when he gets through work, and will have time for leisure to develop his talent for drawing pictures.

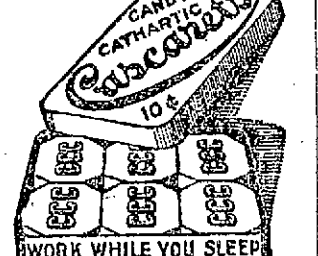

Best Liver and Bowel Laxative FOR FAMILY USE

"Cascarets" Regulate Women, Men and Children Without Injury.

Take When Bilious, Headachy, for Colds, Bad Breath, Sour Stomach.

Instead of nasty, harsh pills, salts, castor oil or dangerous calomel, why don't you keep Cascarets handy in your home? Cascarets act on the liver and thirty feet of bowels so gently you don't realize you have taken a cathartic, but they act thoroughly and can be depended upon when a good liver and bowel cleansing is necessary—they move the bile and poison from the bowels without griping and sweeten the stomach. You eat one or two at night like candy and you wake up feeling fine, the headache, biliousness, bad breath, coated tongue, sour stomach, constipation, or bad cold disappears. Mothers should give Cascarets, sick, feverish or bilious children a whole Cascaret any time—they are harmless and safe for the little folks.

WORK WHILE YOU SLEEP

GIRL ENDS LOVE HOPES WITH SHOT

Takes Life Near Office of the Man She Could Not Marry.

Details of a romance that was wrecked by circumstances were revealed today in the history of Nadine Nichols, former Oakland girl, and famed as "The California Beauty," who shot herself last night in Portland before the office door of the man she loved. On her finger was a ring bearing the man's name. In her room was a partly written letter addressed to him.

According to her friends in Portland, she was despondent because she could not be his bride, he being already married.

Her aunt, Mrs. C. E. Pitts of Oakland, declares that she wrote to Nichols some time ago that she was engaged to the man in question, Allen Hill, a Portland business man, and that later another letter stated that business troubles prevented the marriage.

Miss Nichols was the heroine of a stormy matrimonial career. After the death of her first husband she wedded Bernard B. Velguth, a clerk. The latter was shortly afterward arrested on an embezzlement charge and served a term in the penitentiary. On his release he and his beautiful wife started housekeeping, but in a short time they were divorced. Mrs. Velguth was given her former name.

The body of the noted beauty was found before Hill's door, on the tenth floor of an office building in Portland last night. On her finger was a ring inscribed "From Allen to Grace." In her room was a letter starting "Dear Allen," and unfinished. Hill, who told a friend about an hour before the suicide that she was "terribly despondent" on account of the fact that she and Hill could not wed. Hill declines to discuss the case. "Grace was in trouble," said Mrs. Gertrude Ge-

Raider Is Off Virginia Coast

Mysterious Ship Seen by Captain

NEW YORK, March 3.—A report that a German commerce raider or prize was lurking off Cape Henry, Virginia, awaiting a favorable chance to make a dash for Newport News or Norfolk, was brought here today by Captain Munkewitz of the Bull-Instar liner Grayson arriving here from Porto Rico.

Captain Munkewitz said that early yesterday mysterious lights had been seen from his ship, apparently moving westward. He said heavy weather and clouds prevailed off the Virginia coast and that he was satisfied the vessels whose lights he had seen were trying to keep their movements secret. He felt sure that the lights did not belong to British cruisers, as the patrol ships make no secret of their movements.

IMPOLITE BURGLAR PAYS VISIT. HARTFORD CITY, Ind., March 3.—A very impolite burglar visited the home of Charles Russell. After ransacking the house he departed, leaving the front door open. Cold wind and snow blowing in awakened the family.

REGRETS STOLEN RIDES. COLUMBUS, Ind., March 3.—Following today a local cable of railway company 15 cents for three rides she said she had conducted out of eight years ago.

"I don't know much about it, but it was very serious."

About a year ago Miss Nichols was a visitor in Oakland, when she and a Miss Anderson, declared to be a sister of G. M. Anderson, the motion picture magnate, were prominent in hotels, grills and cafes. She was known in Oakland as Grace Nichols and was here on a visit to her aunt.

"Grace wrote shortly after this that she was very happy," said Mrs. Pitts, and declared that Hill was a fine man—nothing like Velguth. At the time she said that they were to be married. Later she seemed worried and wrote that business reasons had prevented the marriage. That is all I know about the case."

Attorneys Have Trial of Caplan Continues

LOS ANGELES, March 3.—The trial of David Caplan, charged with participating with the McNamara brothers and Mathew Schmidt in the dynamiting of the Los Angeles Times building, October 1, 1910, will be continued from March 14 to April 3. Attorneys for both sides agreed today to the continuance because of the illness of Edwin V. McKenna of San Francisco, an attorney for the defense.

DELEGATES TO DRY WALDORF-ASTORIA CONVENTION NAMED

Thomas Ringland of Oakland Among Four From Bay Cities.

Thomas Ringland of Oakland, and Dr. A. M. Meade, of A. Johnson and Harvey H. Hill of Berkeley, have been named as four of the delegates to go to the national prohibition convention to be held in St. Paul, Minn., on July 15. These names were chosen at a meeting of prohibitionists from all parts of the state with members of the executive committee of the party at Los Angeles yesterday.

Eight delegates were also named from San Francisco. They are Mrs. Minnie Goldthwaite, Joseph Fuch, H. W. Lamont, E. Flinn, W. H. Durnan, Frederick Reed, O. Rasmussen and C. W. Johnson.

Those at the meeting also selected a list of forty-four names to go on the primary ballot as delegates to the St. Paul convention. It was announced that the remaining seventy-seven delegates who make up the state's representation in the convention would be selected by the State Central Committee of the party.

The meeting tabled a resolution which sought to place the delegates at today's meeting on record as favoring amendment No. 1, the so-called "anti-saloon amendment," to be voted on at the November election.

Shipments of Dried Fruits Increase

SACRAMENTO, March 3.—California's dried fruit industry made remarkable gains during the year 1915, according to the report of the California Agricultural Society. The exports of domestic dried fruits have increased in value from $28,868,000 in 1914 to $38,924,000 in 1915.

The enormous demand from Europe, according to Robertson, shows no sign of decreasing.

NO MORE BACKACHE; NO MORE MISERY

Hundreds of people have been relieved of the agonies caused by weak, diseased or clogged-up kidneys by using Solvax, the new remedy that quickly reaches the source of all kidney complaints.

If you suffer with pains in your back and sides or have any signs of kidney or bladder trouble, or if you experience puffiness under the eyes, or if you feel tired and run down, or if you are nervous, or if you are afflicted with urinary disorders, Solvax will quickly and surely relieve you of your misery.

Solvax is probably the most potent remedy yet devised for relieving the system of uric acid and driving out all the poisonous impurities which cause such troubles. It neutralizes, dissolves and makes the kidneys, liver and bladder excrete the uric acid and uric acid, renders the kidneys and urinary organs clean, vigorous and healthy.

Many of the best druggists say that no medicine ought to be paid for unless it does the user some good. Solvax, therefore, sells under a positive guarantee to quickly relieve the worst cases of kidney trouble or your money refunded. Try Solvax today and you will see and feel a decided change for the better. Just go to the druggist from whom you bought it and tell him you want your money back and he will return it without question. This is the strongest argument that can be offered in behalf of any medicine. Solvax is sold in Oakland and vicinity by The Owl Drug Co. and other leading dealers.—Advertisement.

BAD BREATH

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets Get at the Cause and Remove It.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel, get at the bowels and positively do the work.

People afflicted with bad breath find quick relief through Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. The pleasant, sugar-coated tablets are taken for bad breath by all who know them.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets act gently but firmly on the bowels and liver, stimulating them to natural action, clearing the blood and gently purifying the entire system.

They do that which dangerous calomel does without any of the bad after effects. All the benefits of the old-fashioned gripping cathartics are derived from Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets without gripping, pain or disagreeable effects of any kind.

Dr. F. M. Edwards discovered the formula after seventeen years of practice among patients afflicted with bowel and liver complaint with the attendant bad breath.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are purely a vegetable compound, mixed with olive oil; you will know them by their olive color.

Take one or two every night for a week and note the effect. 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

FOUR ARE KILLED IN TRAIN WRECK

After Trains Collide on N. Y. Central, Third One Hits Wreckage.

ALBANY, N. Y., March 3.—Two men are known to be dead, a third was injured, probably fatally, and two others are believed to have been killed in a rear-end collision in the North Albany yards of the New York Central Railroad this morning.

The dead and injured men were express messengers, as was one of the missing men. The fifth is believed to have been a tramp. A heavy east-bound freight struck a main line express which was waiting to enter the Albany station, smashing a steel coach in which the express messengers were riding, a refrigerator car and a load of heavy automobile parts.

A third train also loaded with express and west bound crashed into the wreckage.

Woman Artist in Role of Funeral Director

Miss Florence M. Nace of Richmond, who is artistic director on the staff of Frank C. Havens, and known as a woman of many accomplishments, has added another achievement to her already long list of useful activities. She has demonstrated that she can be a funeral director.

Under her direction yesterday the body of a dead horse was interred on the Havens property at Redwood Peak. When told of the finding of the dead animal she recruited a small army of employees at the Claremont Hotel and superintended their excavation of a grave, and, after that, the burial.

"Undertaking, of course, is out of my regular line of work," she said later. "But this had to be done, and so I did it."

Noffsinger With Jackson Furniture Co.

W. A. Noffsinger, for the past twenty-two years manager of the Metropolitan Furniture Co., has become associated with the sales department of the Jackson Furniture Co.

In speaking of the change, Noffsinger said:

"When we recovered from the first shock of the fire which destroyed our building and stock and began to figure on the time it would take to rebuild and secure a new and complete stock of furniture, we came to the conclusion that many months might elapse before we would actually be ready to do business.

"A very interesting fact developed in our search for a new location—before we decided not to resume business. Oakland has grown so fast during the past few years that no building suitable for a furniture store was available, and it would be necessary for us to either rebuild in the same location or to have a new building constructed for us.

"In joining the sales force of the Jackson Furniture Co. I believe I am convinced with a firm faith that is not only up-to-date and progressive, but a concern that carries as complete a stock of house furnishings as is found on the coast."

Opera Star Dead

CHICAGO, March 3.—Mrs. Mario Divo Marion, 64 years old, a former grand opera star, died at her home here last night. Physicians said acute pleurisy caused the death.

NOT A PARTICLE OF DANDRUFF OR A FALLING HAIR

Save Your Hair! Double Its Beauty in Just a Few Moments.

25-Cent "Danderine" Makes Hair Thick, Glossy, Wavy and Beautiful.

Within ten minutes after an application of Danderine you can not find a single trace of dandruff or falling hair and your scalp will not itch, but what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use, when you see new hair, fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair—growing all over the scalp.

Danderine is to the hair what fresh showers of rain and sunshine are to vegetation. It goes right to the roots, invigorates and strengthens them. Its exhilarating, stimulating and life-producing properties cause the hair to grow long, strong and beautiful.

A little Danderine immediately doubles the beauty of your hair. No difference how dull, faded, brittle and scraggy. Just moisten a cloth with Danderine and carefully draw through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. The effect is amazing—your hair will be light, fluffy and wavy, and have an appearance of abundance and incomparable lustre, softness and luxuriance.

Get a 25-cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter, and prove that your hair is as pretty and soft as any—that it has been injured by the most careless treatment—that all you surely can have beautiful hair and lots of it if you will just try a little Danderine.—Advertisement.

BOY SCOUTS READY FOR EXHIBIT DRILL

Training to Be Demonstrated at the Municipal Auditorium.

A company of boy scouts, trained by Professor G. H. Pfund, physical director of the Oakland schools, will make their first appearance in an exhibit drill at the Municipal Auditorium Tuesday evening as a part of the big program for Oakland's First Annual Amateur Athletic Tournament.

The boys have been trained in signal corps work, first aid to the injured, scouting and rescue work, and manual of arms. They will drill at the tournament as a signal corps, flashing the signals from one end of the arena to the other. The message will be posted on a huge bulletin board.

England has found the boy scouts to be of great service in home guard, coast guard and messenger service work in the auxiliaries since the great war commenced. Professor Pfund contends that the scout work not only provides a sane form of preparation, but is of the utmost service in building up the physical and mental efficiency of the boys. They are given exercise and are taken on trips and scouting trips in the hills. The tournament at which they will appear is a comprehensive demonstration of all forms of athletics for the amateur, and is held under the auspices of the Oakland playground department, the State University, the Oakland, Berkeley and Alameda school departments, Mills College and the Young Men's and Young Women's Christian Association.

Army and Navy Men Talk Preparedness

Preparedness was the topic of discussion at a joint meeting between army and navy officers at Fort Winfield Scott this afternoon. Lieutenant Commander R. E. Pope, aide to Commander F. M. Bennett, of Mare Island, will be in attendance and at least six other officers from the navy yard will take the trip to Fort Scott on the tug Unadilla. Captain McIntire of the Fourth Artillery, who has seen considerable service along the Mexican border this past year, will be the principal speaker.

Declines Cash to Aid War Nations

Oakland Man Will Not Sell Tungsten

When one has a corner on the tungsten market in California and has conscientious scruples about selling to warring nations, where's the profit?

This is the puzzle before O. A. Kenyon, 1635 Eighteenth street, a prominent member of the manufacturers' committee of the Chamber of Commerce. Shortly before the war broke out he became possessed of large quantities of tungsten, then very cheap. Since then warring nations have bought large quantities and the price has risen until the metal is worth from $12 to $15 per pound—a fortune reposing in Kenyon's pockets.

Every day the factory man is besieged by offers from foreign powers to buy his stock. He could sell six times the amount.

"I, for one, will not do anything to help a war," he declares. "I will keep the stuff and lose money rather than sell to any warring nation."

"Human" Birthday Cake Is Planned

With a "human" birthday cake composed of fifty girls, and an entertainment equally novel, the Young Women's Christian Association of Oakland will close its month of jubilee that it has been celebrating simultaneously with associations all over the country, tonight, in the Veterans' building. This constitutes the formal birthday fete of the organization.

Among the speakers will be Miss Bertha Conde, girls' secretary of the national board in New York and one of the leaders in association work in the United States. Miss Grace Fisher will act as chairman and the pieces of cake will be fifty of the prettiest girls in the association.

Monday night the first step in the campaign to raise $30,000 for the year's expenses and for a new swimming pool will be inaugurated with a big dinner, which will be attended by many hundreds of association members. For some time this campaign has been contemplated, but action was deferred until the fiftieth anniversary of the association's existence in America should be fittingly observed.

LOCAL CHAPTER OF RED CROSS FORMED

Dr. John S. Engs Is Named as Chairman; Details Complete.

Details of the organization of a local chapter of the American Red Cross were completed last night at the rooms of the Oakland Commercial club, when officers were named, plans perfected for a membership campaign at once, all work of the new organization gotten under way.

The meeting was under the direction of Dr. John S. Engs, who was elected chairman of the chapter, the jurisdiction of which will include Piedmont and outlying sections of Oakland. Dr. N. K. Foster, medical officer of the Oakland board of education, was named vice-chairman, Miss Lucile A. Leveque, secretary, and John Davidson treasurer. An executive committee of twenty-five members will be appointed to conduct the affairs of the local organization. This chapter will meet again in a few days to start its membership campaign.

The organization was perfected by Dr. Engs, who for several months has worked on the project of starting a local chapter. In opening last night's meeting Dr. Engs called attention to the principal features pertaining to the Red Cross, telling of the interest shown in other countries. "The Japanese society has nearly 2,000,000 men, women and children as members," he said. "They consider it an expression of patriotism to affiliate with the work. They also have a permanent endowment fund of $13,000,000."

"We hope soon to bring the endowment fund of the Red Cross up to $2,000,000. There has already been raised $900,000. While the Red Cross is engaged in the collection and disbursement of relief funds, it does not wish to interfere or conflict with the work of local charitable organizations. It works in time of need, but in its local chapters it is the funds to the central organization for disbursement, this making the work efficient and systematic."

Mrs. Arlette spoke of the work of the Red Cross in times of big disasters, praising the work of the organization in the San Francisco fire. Other members spoke of the work done by the organization in times of stress.

"We are going to plan the membership work, will be at the call of the chair."

YOUNG HEIR FACES MARRIAGE PACT

Chappell, Jr., Will Receive Big Bonus if He Weds at Once.

STANFORD, March 3.—If it's cheaper for two to live than one, anyhow, and, besides, the bridegroom is to get a reward of $13,000 for marrying, what is the net profit in matrimony?

This is the mathematical question that Delos A. Chappell Jr., Stanford University student, is to figure, as a new-made business man and heir to a million. The matrimonial-mathematical puzzle is before him as provision in his father's will, which, besides leaving him a fortune, sets forth that, for an early marriage, he will receive $12,000 in cash at once, and $8000 will be released to the sister prior to the settlement of the estate.

The settlement of the estate will leave young Chappell nearly a million dollars. His father, Delos A. Chappell of Los Angeles, president of the Nevada-California Power Company, left an estate of nearly a million and a half, the will stating that the son is to get the big money, and his sister, Mrs. Jean Cramer, of Denver, the residue.

The premium for an early marriage is set at $18,000, with the provision that the youth will be given $12,000 if he weds at once. Final division under the will cannot be made until the youth reaches the age of 45. At 35 he and his sister are to manage their properties. But they are enjoined not to divide it until ten years thereafter.

Elaborate provisions are made for a board of trustees to handle the estate until his children reach the age specified by Chappell.

Young Chappell is a member of the Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity and formerly attended Princeton. He plans to remain at Stanford and finish his study of the law.

SPEEDER IS CAPTURED.—A thrilling automobile chase through five miles of streets in the Western Addition resulted in the arrest of Fred Phillips, alleged speeder, yesterday by Patrolman Fred Tietze this morning. Later saw the machine going at a 21-mile clip, requisitioned an automobile and followed after. He finally overtook his man after racing through a labyrinth of streets near the Park neighborhood. He was booked on two charges of speeding.

SEIZED TO SPEAK.—Emil Seidel, former mayor of Milwaukee and one of the foremost Socialist leaders in the United States, will be the speaker this evening at Hamilton hall, Thirteenth and Jefferson streets. Seidel will give the Socialist viewpoint of the war in Europe and the attitude of the Socialists in America on the conflict.

W. C. T. U. SESSION.—The Oakland Central Women's Christian Temperance Union will meet at 2:30 o'clock at the First Baptist church. Mrs. Jennie Redfield, the president, will preside.

Blue Bird Bureau

Department of Good-Fellowship

Seeing all around town so many vacant lots that do not produce anything but worthless weeds season after season, and believing that most children have the desire for making things grow, the Bluebird Bureau is wondering if this lot, one Bureau cannot be made to grow vegetables. The only way to find this out, the Bureau reasons, is by experimenting in a small way at first. If we can get the use of one or two large, enclosed lots in the vicinity of the TRIBUNE office, Eighth and Franklin streets, a lot that is not likely to be sold for at least a year, we shall have the soil fertilized and then we'll make an experiment in truck gardening. If the results are satisfactory, the experiment may prove to be of great importance and of much benefit to hundreds of children.

When Good Fellows ring up the Bluebird Bureau at the TRIBUNE office, or its agency, and notify us of their desire to contribute to the supply of clothing and household articles, they sometimes become impatient when the wagon does not call the same day or the next, and believe that their generosity is unappreciated. They are mistaken. With our restricted means of hauling and the nature of it, they would look at it in a different way. All the hauling is done by volunteer labor. The superintendent of the bureau agency which is supported largely by the sale and delivery of wood, gratuitously gives his time and the use of his own team in the hauling of clothes and other articles on his rounds of delivery. He also gives many calls "come in, often seven and eight miles apart, and to make a special trip to a distant address is out of the question. Frequently he has to wait two or three days before he can get to work before the delivery of wood in certain parts of town makes it possible for him to call at distant addresses. When once this condition is understood, the Good Fellows will feel sure that they will be patient when the wagon does not call immediately upon request.

The delivery of different articles of furniture, such as bureaus, beds, chairs, stoves and huggies, is sometimes a serious question. Whenever poor mothers, in whose behalf these things are collected and temporarily stored at the bureau, are called upon to give up the furniture themselves, they are called upon to do so, but when this is impossible, we have to devise other ways and means. If it were not for the substantial assistance of the Good Fellows, the bureau would be unable to deliver many an article for us, we surely would have been up against it, many a time. We cannot be too profuse in our expressions of gratitude to this company, also in the fact that the next time we have need of the prompt delivery of a stove, a buggy, a bureau or a chair.

Who, able to do so, would not like to help an ambitious motherless high school girl? The young girl lives with her father, a poor man, who has not had a steady position for a long time, and she is unable to obtain anything but odd jobs. The mother has been dead for several years and the three younger children are placed in a home. The oldest girl, who is very anxious to procure a good education, has become so qualified for the struggle for existence and be of material help to her younger brothers and sister. It is determined to finish her high school course. However, her father's home is a long distance from the school and having no money for carfare, each morning and each afternoon this girl has to walk several miles. This is a waste of precious time, and also a great strain on her health. The bureau has heard of her case and she would like to turn over to a housewife who needs help one day a week, in exchange for a little money.

The big room at the Harrison school, where the clothes for distribution are placed on long racks, looked quite so-called this afternoon. Six ladies arrived and volunteered to help with the sorting and packing of the goods. Two stayed but a short time, but four remained all afternoon.

HAZEL CHERRY DEFIES COURT.—After arriving in court half an hour late this morning and being taken to task by Superior Judge Ogden, Mrs. Hazel Cherry, who is on trial for alleged participation in a "badger game" for which her husband has been sentenced to twelve years in prison, took on a belated attitude and refused to answer one of the first questions asked her by Deputy District Attorney W. B. Smith.

"Did you know that your husband was going to get money from Herman Frensch?" the defendant was asked. "I won't answer that question. You can send me to prison if you wish, but I am tired of all this stuff," declared Mrs. Cherry.

Attorney A. C. Cunha, counsel for the defendant, interrupted her and finally she denied that she had known anything about the money matter.

After the conviction of William L. Cherry, his wife, whose marriage to him was reported as having been by the prison officers, sent her two children back East to live with relatives and took up her abode in downtown lodging houses. Her husband is still in the county jail awaiting action on his appeal from the prison sentence.

Wife Gives Hubby a Scare With Stolen Coat

DETROIT, Mich., March 2.—"Daw-gone, I want my robe back!" yelled Allen Shelden, resident of 10000 Polio Shore, in police headquarters.

"That was a fox fur robe worth $2000," continued Shelden. "I left it for a few minutes in my automobile in front of the county building, and now it's gone. Get busy! Get some detectives and find it before my wife knows it's gone or good night!"

Sympathetic clerks took down a description of the valuable robe and soon two detectives were on the trail. Shelden stood by the desk, urging haste. A woman had entered, carrying in her arms a robe, said the woman, smiling at the office force. "You see, I took the robe to give my husband a lesson. He's so careless about leaving it in the machine."

Shelden mopped his brow.

STUDENT ASININITY PROMPTS COMMENT

Junior Writes to Paper on the Limitations of Collegians.

"The asinine quality of student conversation, so broadly characteristic of a student body, is hard to account for," declares Randall Dorton, a junior student in the University of California, in a communication to the Daily Californian today.

"Perhaps most of us are so incapable of self-development that our decorum can only be trusted when restrained. Or, rather, we have failed to grasp the significance of the opportunities which higher education offers. It can hardly be possible that we have felt this significance and yet remain wholly indifferent to its calling."

Dorton's letter to the student daily was composed chiefly of criticism for the way in which the every-day language is abused by the students at large and his letter was in part as follows:

THOUGHT STIMULUS.—"If education is worth the name, its object should be not merely the granting of degrees, but the stimulation of thought. There are many tendencies in any university which defeat the very purpose of its organization and its own usefulness is in jeopardy. One of the most detrimental influences to the free and open development of the student mind is the inanity of student conversation. It matters not whether it is on the campus or off of it; in the fraternal house or on the street—unless it is the amount of profanity used in the casual house raised first—the subject of student conversation generally are only not stimulating at positively injurious to mental development. Such a state of affairs prevails in our student body and the exception, whenever found, is a rare and precious exception.

SHOULD FIT SELVES.—"Every moment in the university should be a moment of improvement. And whether it is in the classroom, in our conversation, in our demeanor or in our thoughts, we should strive for improvement—there's plenty of room. These are four admirable years for development and creation. They are the best years of our life and the tests of time will call us to account for the manner in which they are spent. While in this rich harvest-field of learning and cooperation, we should eminently fit ourselves for the duties which life and society present. In failing to interpret the opportunities offered now, we are not only blighting the hand that feeds us, but also impoverishing the soul that we are supposed to nourish."

Church Members in Buck and Wing Show

"Buck and wing dancing," numerous skits and music make up the bill for a minstrel show to be given this evening in the Myrtle street Congregational church in Fourteenth street, by a number of gifted members of Rev. J. H. Orr's flock. The affair is in charge of Emmett Moore, George Partridge and H. H. Kling, who also will take leading parts. Assisting in the performance are Mrs. Ed Whitehead, Miss Goble White, Harvey Lark, James Sullivan and a large chorus. Miss Florence Mitchell will conduct the orchestra and the Misses McInnes will give an exposition of "buck and wing" dances.

The Kind You Have Always Bought.

THIS is the caution applied to the public announcement of Castoria that has been manufactured under the supervision of Chas. H. Fletcher for over 30 years—the genuine Castoria. We respectfully call the attention of fathers and mothers when purchasing Castoria to see that the wrapper bears his signature in black. When the wrapper is removed the same signature appears on both sides of the bottle in red. Parents who have used Castoria for their little ones in the past years need no warning against counterfeits and imitations, but our present duty is to call the attention of the younger generation to the great danger of introducing into their families spurious medicines. It is to be regretted that there are people who are now engaged in the nefarious business of putting up and selling all sorts of substitutes, or what should more properly be termed counterfeits, for medicinal preparations not only for adults, but worse yet, for children's medicines. It therefore devolves on the mother to scrutinize closely what she gives her child. Adults can do that for themselves, but the child has to rely on the mother's watchfulness. Genuine Castoria always bears the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher.

BISHOP IN PLEA URGES PATRIOTISM

Epworth League Alliance at Alameda Hears Bishop
Hughes.

A stirring appeal for patriotism was made last evening by Bishop Edwin H. Hughes in his address before the Epworth League Alliance of Alameda and Contra Costa counties, which held a rally in the First Methodist Church, Alameda. The league held sessions yesterday afternoon and last evening, one thousand being present to hear the bishop's address.

The league awarded the banner for best growth of the societies to the intermediates of the Shattuck Avenue church of Berkeley. Honorable mention was given to the St. Stephen's and St. Andrew's societies of Oakland.

The Junior League met in the afternoon and were addressed by Rev. J. A. B. Fry. Supper was served in the church at 4 o'clock and this was followed by a half hour of music.

In the evening the church presented a pretty spectacle, each society having some distinctive dress as an identification mark. The First Church society of Oakland held red balloons, which made a pretty effect, while other organizations had novel hats.

Bishop Hughes presented the attitudes of the Psalmist, Apostle and Savior as regards patriotism. He pointed out that each and every citizen of this country should be patriotic at this time and that the vexing problem should be solved by reading the Bible.

Bottle Explodes; Man Brings Suit

FAIRFIELD, March 3.—Raymond J. Oppermann has filed suit against Ernest Grunhagen, of Vallejo, in the amount of $1000 for injuries he alleges he sustained while employed by Grunhagen.

The plaintiff states that Grunhagen, who owns and operates a pleasure resort near Vallejo, employed him to sell soda water and ice cream during the summer of 1913.

While he was reaching down to pick up a bottle of soda water from under the ice, while thus employed, Grunhagen, the bottle exploded, fragments of the glass striking him in the face, injuring one eye and destroying the sight of the others.

Box Car Shortage Felt by Shippers

"Order your box cars early and you won't wait so long."

This is the "tip" given by the railroads to Oakland factory men. There is a temporary shortage in box cars, and shippers are beginning to feel it.

The Southern Pacific sent instructions to its agents and shippers this week, urging them to watch their box car needs carefully in order to get the best results.

What Dyspeptics Should Eat

"Indigestion and practically all forms of stomach trouble are, nine times out of ten, due to acidity. Therefore stomach sufferers should, whenever possible, avoid eating food that is acid in its nature, or which by chemical action in the stomach develops acidity. Those sufferers who have been obliged to exclude from their diet all starch, sweet or fatty food, and are trying to live on a miserable existence on gluten products, should try a meal of any food or foods in moderate amount, taking immediately afterwards a teaspoonful of bisulphate of magnesia in a little hot or cold water. This will neutralize any acid which may be formed, and instead of the usual feeling of uneasiness and fullness, you will find that your food agrees with you perfectly. Bisulphate of magnesia is doubtless the best food corrective and anti-acid known. It has direct action on the stomach, but by neutralizing the acidity of the food contents, and thus removing the source of the acid irritation which inflames the delicate stomach lining, it does more than could possibly be done by any drug or medicine. Do not dose an inflamed and irritated stomach with drugs, but get rid of the acid—the cause of all the trouble. Get a little bisulphate of magnesia from your druggist, eat what you want at your next meal, take some of the bisulphate of magnesia as directed above, and note remarkable results.—Advertisement.

CAFE CHANTANT BRILLIANT SUCCESS AS SOCIETY RESPONDS TO CHARITY CALL

Gay Scene at the Hotel Oakland When Merry Hundreds Dance

The cafe chantant—as it might have been in Paris before the war—with a few Americanizations—had a brilliant premiere last night at Hotel Oakland. Artists graciously sacrificed their dignity for the cause—even as unknown Parisian geniuses—and became "entertainers;" society maidens in Watteau frocks and black patches judiciously arranged peddled candy nonchalantly; several hundred people talked incessantly, danced frantically, attacked a 10:30 o'clock supper intermittently and listened occasionally.

So successful was the fete, in fact, that the "cafe chantant" is probably established as a form of amusing crowds for some time to come. Because there was "something doing" every minute, patrons de families who moved in reluctantly with blinking eyes waxed more than tolerant, and it went off with ease from 9 o'clock, when the "smart set" and a few others began to arrive, until the last limousine whirled away hours later.

Incidentally the Society for the Prevention of Tuberculosis, in behalf of which Mrs. Mark Lawrence Requa and Miss Annie Florence Brown arranged the affair, added a considerable sum to its treasury.

RADIANT SHOW.

The ballroom of the hotel, where the "cafe" was staged, quite lost its identity last night. Its dignified austerity was broken by a cubistic square of whirling dancers clad in the brightest and most dithyrambic gowns of many seasons and by the double row of flower-decorated tables that encircled its long sides and far and facing the stage. The gowns were unusually minus above, unusually voluminous below and so far removed from pastel effects in hue that the daffodils and greenery on the tables looked blanched.

The program, which started at 10 o'clock, was given under the supervision of Signor Antonio de Grassi, by a group of distinguished artists who volunteered their services for the occasion, and whose performance was enthusiastically appreciated. Among these were Miss Lucia Dunham, who sang several folks songs, and Miss Amy Holman of London, a contralto, who has just come here from South Africa, where she has been singing to the wounded men in the hospitals.

Another singer who contributed his voice was Harry Robertson of San Francisco, who interpreted several popular songs, including "Lacrimosa," "Te Deum," "Tosca" and Bartolomeo's "Trista Ritozono." Miss Roxana Wiehe, who as one of the belles in a quaint panniered gown played the Schuman-Liszt "Lilieduet," with professional pianistic dexterity, and Signor de Grassi, whose artistic standing as a violinist and composer is established in Europe as well as on this coast, was heard in several fine numbers, including a duet with Miss Marian Prevost. Frederick Mayer of Berkeley accompanied at the piano.

At the conclusion of the program the supper was served and dancing was general until the wind-up of the affair.

The "candy girls" and "lemonade" vendors who dispensed sweets and luscious beverages during the evening, passing between the tables with their trays on their heads, were a part of the show. The girls included a score of the younger belles under the leadership of Mrs. Clinton Walker and Mrs. Edward von Adelung. Among them were Miss Katherine Maxwell, Miss Adeline Howard, Miss Helen Coogan, Miss Mary Adams, Miss Algonia Ward, Miss Mary Foster, Miss Marjorie Coogan and others.

Scores of "Dutch treat" parties filled tables and many others entertained small groups of friends. Among the interesting parties was that of Mrs. Mark Requa, who was hostess to the artists at a round table near the stage. This party included nearly twenty guests.

MANY GUESTS.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Butters had as their guests Mr. and Mrs. William S. Weeks and Mr. and Mrs. William Bethune Ireland of San Francisco.

With Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Leyman were Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Forgive, Miss Forgive, Mrs. Ada Dodge and Mr. L. B. Doan.

One of the large Dutch treat parties included Mr. and Mrs. Howard Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Coogan, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wade Snook, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Marion Walsh, Mr. John L. Howard, Mrs. Frank Adams, Mr. and Mrs. N. R. Adams and others.

Another Dutch treat party included Mr. and Mrs. George C. Jensen, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Lee, and Mrs. Arthur Markwart and others.

In Miss Ethel Moore's party were Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Moore, Mr. and Mrs. J. Valentine Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Walter Starr, Mr. and Mrs. George Bates Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bates Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Hill and Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Storror of Berkeley as their guests.

Mr. and Mrs. William Letts Oliver's party included Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Oliver, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Oliver, Miss Florence Brown and Mr. L. E. Evans.

With Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Crowell were Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Rutledge.

GET IT FIRST—NOT LAST

When a cold grips your system it is a convincing proof that your condition is weakened—remember that. It is risky indeed to simply trust your strength to throw it off, because neglected colds have brought more serious sickness than any other one thing, while weakening cathartics and stimulants rups are often depressing and dangerous.

The one best treatment for any cold—the one so often relied on when others fail—is the powerful blood-nourishment in Scott's Emulsion, which feeds the very sources of bodily strength to suppress the present cold and generate strength to thwart further sickness.

Get Scott's first, not last—and insist on the genuine—always free from alcohol and injurious drugs.

Childhood Lovers Seal Death Pact

MUSKOGEE, Okla., March 3.—Harry B. Jew killed his wife and committed suicide with a knife at their home near there, according to the verdict of a coroner's jury.

Their bodies were found on the little fruit farm, their "Valley of the Moon," where they spent their five months' honeymoon.

Jew and his wife were born the same day, thirty-one years ago. They were sweethearts in school,

MRS. VON DOHLEN GOES ON TRIAL

Jury Being Selected Today and Woman Waits With Child for Outcome.

Mrs. Evelyn Reed Von Dohlen, who has several felony charges pending against her, and whose sensational story of having been "tricked" into a fake marriage attracted considerable attention recently, following her escape from a local hospital in a taxicab, went on trial today in the Superior court on a charge of passing a fictitious check on an East Oakland groceryman.

When she appeared in court Mrs. Von Dohlen had her 7-year-old boy upon her knee and was accompanied by Rev. Alexander Allen of St. Paul's church, who stands on her bonds to the amount of $5000.

Friends of Mrs. Von Dohlen claim that she was not in her right mind when she committed the alleged crimes. Since her release on bond she has been sheltered by Rev. Allen and other friends who are now making a fight for her liberty.

Today was spent in selecting a jury.

POSTMISTRESS OF PENRYN IS DEAD

Mrs. Teresa Manley Stricken
While at Work in Home.

SACRAMENTO, March 3.—While at work preparing for the entertainment of a group of friends who were to call, Mrs. Teresa Manley, former postmistress at Penryn, was stricken with apoplexy at her home, 1108 H street, and died before medical aid could be given.

Mrs. Manley was in a particularly cheerful mood during the day and early evening, and had just eaten a hearty meal. She was discovered lying on the floor of the dining room by her son, Wellington S. Manley.

Mrs. Manley had lived here for three years, coming from Penryn, where she had spent thirty years of her life. She is survived by two sons, Wellington and Albert S. Manley of this city, and two daughters, Miss Josephine Manley and Mrs. Henry Lee.

The remains were shipped to Penryn, where services were held at 3 o'clock this afternoon. They then will be returned to Sacramento for interment Saturday morning in the Odd Fellows' Lawn Cemetery.

New School Planned by Church at Lodi

LODI, March 3.—Rev. Father Doland reports that several members of his congregation are raising a fund with which to buy a site and erect a modern parochial school. The fund, as planned, will carry the expense until the school is on a paying basis. A fund of $50,000 or more will be raised. St. Ann's Catholic church now has a large vacant lot on West Walnut street that may be used for this purpose. The names of the donors will not be divulged until the entire fund is subscribed.

Wrong Pocket Is Pillfered by Thief

REDDING, March 3.—John Dally, a farm hand from Vina, was knocked down and robbed in broad daylight at the Shasta street crossing.

A. Page, charged with the robbery, was captured a few minutes later after fifty eye-witnesses had joined in the chase.

Dally had $40 in gold in his right pocket and only $3.50 in silver in another pocket. This was the one Page pilfered.

SAYS DENTIST WAS ADMIRER OF DRESS

Ambitions of Spouse at the Bottom of Divorce
Plea.

Mrs. Harry S. Keck, wife of a local dentist, in a cross-complaint to a divorce action filed by him charging desertion, says that often when she accompanied him on the street and he saw a well-dressed woman he remarked: "I wish I had a woman like that to live with."

Then she goes on to relate that he had not provided her with a suitable home and that it was so "unfit" that she was forced to leave.

In addition to this she says he was "abnormally jealous, shiftless and wasteful" and never took her to any places of amusement.

Also, she says, he failed to provide for her and their minor child and wasted $1100, leaving her penniless.

Superior Judge Brown today awarded Mrs. Keck $35 for costs of her support pending the outcome of the suit. The couple were married at Auburn in December, 1912, and, according to the divorce complaint, separated in March, 1915.

For his part, Keck says he spent about $50 per year in taking his wife to places of amusement.

Bride of Two Weeks Now Asks for Divorce

SAN FRANCISCO, March 3.—Declaring that two weeks after her marriage she discovered that her husband had grossly deceived her about himself, his family and his wealth, Mrs. Beatrice Brown today sued for an annulment of her marriage to Joseph L. Brown, a contractor.

The deceptions were of three kinds, she asserts. He represented himself as a widower, she declares, while he has a divorced wife in an asylum. And, instead of having only two children, as he pretended, and able to give her the sort of home she was accustomed to, he had to borrow small sums from her, she says.

She declares this condition forced her to leave him, and, while she sues for an annulment of the marriage, she wants $15 permanent monthly alimony.

Wife Denies She Is Wooded by Affinity

SAN FRANCISCO, March 3.—Denying she has an affinity in Louis Russ, a cousin of her husband, Frank Rossi, who left her last night and real estate man, Mrs. Mary Rossi today filed a cross-complaint for divorce.

Her husband charged cruelty and desertion. She denies the cruelty, and says she had to leave him because of his cruelty.

Once he left her, going to Alaska, where he remained for six months while she was left with only $50 in the house, she asserts.

She declares he owns $20,000 worth of realty, including the hotel at 445 Broadway, where they lived, besides a fund of $100,000, which she says is a personal property, of which she asks half. She obtained an injunction from Judge Cabantes to hold the property secure until the suit is decided.

MAY HAVE JOINED BAIL.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 3.—Mrs. May Rodgers, who is facing a charge of performing a illegal operation failed to appear in Judge Brady's court this morning. There is a similar accusation against her in Superior Judge Dunne's court and it is feared she may have jumped her bail. She was released by Judge Brady on depositing $200 cash and if she does not on hand tomorrow this will be forfeited. She was arrested February 14 at her home, 150 Guerrero street.

EDUCATORS FORESTALL BIG PROTEST

In Face of Teachers' Revolt, Modify Salary Cut

Error to Be Corrected by Maximum Assessment of $20

There is a lull in the teachers' revolt. The Board of Education, at its meeting late yesterday afternoon, warded off the threatened storm of protest of representatives of the 300 instructors who have been over-paid during the past two years through a clerical error by adopting a resolution decreasing that no more than $20 a month shall be taken out of the salary warrants of any of the teachers. This amount will be taken out until all of the over-payments have been returned to the school funds.

The school teachers' clubs were represented by a committee at yesterday's meeting. It was headed by Miss Frances Murray.

"If all of this money is taken out of the February warrants," she said, "some of the teachers will suffer. Why, some of them have to pay back as high as $80, and if that amount should be taken out of one month's warrant, the teacher would have nothing with which to pay her expenses for the remainder of the month."

Thereupon the board, by unanimous vote, adopted the resolution limiting the monthly deductions to $20. It was explained that it is the board's desire to have all of the missing $2500 or more returned during the present school term, which ends June 30.

In the meantime the teachers remain silent on the question of what is to be done. No meeting has been called of the school teachers and principals' clubs to discuss the proposal that attorneys be retained to contest the action of the board, although this matter has been discussed freely by individual teachers.

On recommendation of Superintendent of Schools A. C. Barker, the board appropriated $4000 to be expended in the construction of a building at the Highland school to house departments of manual training, cooking and sewing. The new structure is to be of permanent construction and it will be completed for the opening of the next fall term.

C. L. Siles was retained by the board as assistant draftsman in the department at a salary of $100 a month. He succeeds Ray Wilson, who recently resigned.

BABY CARE EXHIBIT IS COMPLETED

To Be Housed at Baby Hospital All Next Week

Experts to Show Mothers All Points in Care of Infants

Arrangement of the baby welfare exhibit which will be used for demonstration purposes during Baby Welfare Week next week was today completed at the Baby Hospital, Fifty-first and Dover streets. The exhibit has been placed in the clinic room of the hospital, where it will be maintained for the general public throughout the week. An expert demonstrator is to be engaged to have charge of the exhibit and explain it to the visiting mothers.

Every point dealing with the welfare of infants will be dealt with during the week. Mothers are to be told how to best feed and clothe their babies; how to care for them in case of certain occurrences common in the lives of infants; the best surroundings and general conditions are to be explained, and many other valuable suggestions will be given out.

TO KEEP BABY WELL.

Circulars have been issued by the Baby Hospital officers, containing many of the points which it is desired to bring before mothers. Among the suggestions contained in these circulars is one that parents see that their baby's birth be registered as soon as possible, as this insures citizenship and may have future legal trouble. Other suggestions are as follows:

"To keep the baby well:

"Give the baby pure air day and night.

"Cleanliness in everything is of the greatest importance.

"Give the baby no food but mother's milk."

"Remember the importance of regularity in nursing, and do not over-feed."

"Whenever the baby cries or is fretful, hold it, give it food, but give it cool, boiled water."

"Do not put too much clothing on the baby."

"Bathe it in a tub daily."

"The less that baby is handled the better for the baby."

In addition to these automatic instructions a great array of valuable suggestions is included in the circulars.

THE DO'S AND DON'TS.

Among these are the following:

"The prevention of infant disorders is easier, and less expensive than the treatment and cure."

"Remember the conditions and surroundings of the mother before the baby is born have their effect on the baby after birth."

"The breast-fed baby is less liable to many disorders such as cholera infantum, convulsions, etc."

"It is dangerous to wean a young baby. It should not be done for the convenience of the mother."

"Baby foods, condensed milk and the like are not satisfactory substitutes for good cow's milk."

"Spoiled milk owing to faulty refrigeration and lack of care is to be blamed for many attacks of acute illness among infants."

"Do not put too much clothing on the baby in hot weather."

"Changes in temperature should be met by changes in the baby's garments."

"The temperature of the baby's room should be kept not higher than 68 or 70 degrees in winter, and in summer it should be kept as cool as possible with windows open."

"The surroundings of the home should be free from uncovered garbage, rubbish and manure. All of these attract flies and other disease carrying insects."

Club women, churches of all denominations and the physicians of the city will join with the Baby Hospital officers in their work of education. Most of the women's clubs, including the larger and more exclusive organizations, will hold meetings during Baby Welfare Week, at which the welfare of infants will be discussed. Competent demonstrators will lecture before the organizations. Well-known physicians will write articles on the care of babies which will be published in the newspapers.

der the auspices of the Children's Bureau at Washington, D. C., assisted by the General Federation of Women's Clubs. Every here city in the United States will join in the educational campaign.

On Leap Year Day

Pair Slips Away

Helen Robertson and

Chas. Noddin Elope

Leaving Oakland on the last day of leap year month and wedding at San Jose, Miss Helen Irene Robertson, daughter of Robert Robertson of this city, and Charles Nelson Noddin of Berkeley have returned as man and wife. Parental forgiveness has followed, and the young couple are now in Berkeley, where they will make their home.

The couple met through their interest in church work, and according to the account given their friends, the romance has been brewing for some time, although no one was taken into their confidence. They quietly left Oakland February 23, were married in San Jose by Rev. Charles E. Irons of the Methodist Church of that city, and, on their return, broke the news to their parents.

The bride, who is just 21 years of age, is the daughter of Robert Robertson, past president of the Rotary Club and a prominent worker in civic organizations. Noddin is the son of a Los Gatos rancher, and was in Berkeley as a student at the Berkeley High School.

Mrs. Noddin is secretary of the Alameda County Barren Union, and Alameda president of the Barren class of the College Avenue M. E. Church. It was through this work that they first became acquainted.

UHL DROVE TOO FAST, SAYS JURY

Lawyers Do Not Allow Wealthy Man to Testify

Coroner's Verdict, Says Speed of Auto Was Excessive

That the big automobile in which Adolph Uhl and party of four wedding guests were riding on the night of February 24 when the car ran down and killed Miss Helen J. Smith at Oakland avenue and Pearl street was traveling at an excessive speed and was driven in a negligent manner was the verdict of the coroner's jury which last night fixed the blame for the accident upon Uhl. The wealthy merchant in now under $10,000 bonds pending his trial on a charge of manslaughter.

Uhl was not permitted to testify by his counsel, Attorneys E. E. Trefethen and T. F. Friel. Coroner's Deputy District Attorney Myron Harris made an effort to cross-examine the several witnesses called.

"We will have our say in the police court," said Deputy Harris last night. "The prosecution will not present its case until the hearing in court."

ESTIMATE SPEED.

With the exception of Raymond Crumme, witness of the tragedy who stood on the corner and saw the automobile strike Miss Smith, helpless to assist her, the other principals in the case appeared to have only one recollection of the circumstances that stood out perceptibly. Their testimony was that they were traveling at least between 30 and 35 miles per hour and that the big headlights were in operation.

Mr. and Mrs. Felton Taylor and Mr. and Mrs. George Uhl, the other members of the auto party, testified.

NONE SAW GIRL.

None of them admitted having seen Miss Smith and her big building crossing the street. They testified that they did not know anybody had been struck until Adolph Uhl, the driver, uttered an exclamation. They said that they felt the brakes applied simultaneously with the impact which they thought was some defect in the pavement.

George Uhl testified that he was looking out on the right hand side of the car endeavoring to locate the home of a friend. He said that he was not talking about the matter, only mentally taking notes as they passed along. Beyond that none of the witnesses remembered the topic of conversation at the time or whether Adolph Uhl was engaged in it with them.

A demonstration made by Uhl before the jury regarding the difference between the headlights and the dimmers on the auto, showed that with the dimmers on a person could be seen distinctly at a distance of 60 feet.

Burglars Invade Home

and Steal Ivory Set

William N. Davis, 3221 Colby street, reported to the police that his home was entered by burglars last night while he and his wife were visiting friends in Berkeley. An ivory bridge set of mirror, brush and comb, was taken from the bedroom, and a purse containing $2.

Richard H. Higgins, 439 Sixty-second street, reported that his room at 828 Franklin street was entered during the night and a suit of clothes and personal effects stolen.

James Scannell, 532 Franklin street, reported the theft of clothing from his room.

CAMPANILE BELLS FIT, SAYS EXPERT

University Receives Report of Testing of Chimes in London.

BREKLEY, March 3.—"In every way satisfactory"—that is the gratifying report which has come from England to the University of California on the twelve Suther Bells—the chimcs which are about to be swung in the open belfry of the Sather Campanile of Berkeley.

The distinguished London authority who inspected the musical quality of the Suther Bells for the university was J. R. Walters, M.A., F.R.A., of the British Museum, who is also recognized as the leading campanologist in England, and who made a special journey to Loughborough, where the bells were cast, to test them. The invitation from the University of California to make this test was "Under my directions," writes Mr. Walters to President Wheeler, "Messrs. Taylor submitted the bills to a variety of the president, as he visited London on his way to take up work on the continent for the American Commission for Relief in Belgium.

of tests with chiming hammers, in order to give the effect of every possible combination of notes and scales, and in every case they appeared to me to sound perfectly true and harmonious: I was also much impressed with the beautifully rich, deep tones of the larger bells. I also superintended the weighing of the bells, the tenor coming out at 2650 pounds, which in my opinion is about the proper weight for the tenor of a chime of these proportions." ("Tenor" is the technical name for the largest bell of a chime.)

"That the bells are in perfect tone and harmony there can be no doubt, and this is due to the great skill of the bellfounders."

the makers have adopted with conspicuous success. It is well known that every system which fairly strikes gives some three or four distinct octaves, the 'fundamental' tonic, the octave above, or 'nominal', and the octave below, or 'hum' note. Belts cast on the old system very seldom had all these three notes in unison: the hum note being usually sharper, the fundamental flatter, than the nominal. In the new system, however, the two former were usually neglected, and the nominal only regarded. By the new system the fundamental note of each bell can be brought into true octave with its nominal with perfect exactness, and when each individual bell has been tuned to its nominal, the system as a whole is brought into the octave.

mony of a whole ring or chime can be obtained with equal certainty. Similarly, the hum note, where necessary, can be rectified by thinning the metal near the crown of the bell. The machinery by part of the bell is regulated can be adjusted with scientific accuracy, and this is the only method of the regulation of the thumb method. It is also worth noting that bell-founders are now giving up the old short-waisted type of bell and are making straighter and long-waisted form. Anyone who is familiar with Italian bells, for instance, will appreciate the difference in depth of tone which the long-waisted form yields.

"I have no hesitation in saying that I have not studied with such care, and heard of the bells, and I am sure that they will equally give you satisfaction.

The Chinese are a gift to the University of California from Mrs. Jane K. Sather, like the 402-foot Sather Campanile in which they are being hung.

EPWORTH REUNION.
ALAMEDA, March 2. — A family reunion will be held Sunday evening by the Epworth League of the First Methodist Church. Miss Gertrude Jackson will be given charge of the meeting and music will be rendered by Miss Ethel Gibson, Kenneth McKenzie, Wilbur Toy and Miss Ruth Carr.

Fraternal Societies

BERKELEY, March 3.—Two Berkeley fraternal organizations, the Moose Lodge No. 884 and Wedgewood Camp of Woodmen, No. 44, announced plans today for a big minstrel show for which they are preparing, to be given at Lincoln Hall the evening of March 30, and to be followed by dancing. The program indicates several departures from the conventional type of minstrel, and an excellent entertainment is promised by the committee.

The general committee is composed of H. Kersney, chairman, of the Bioces; D. S. Williams of the Woodman, and T. H. Schulz. Chairmen have also been named for several sub-committees, including the following: Director, Fred Gloeckler; admissions, H. T. H. Schulz; publicity, Frank A. Berg, and music, Frank Jones.

One of the features of the program already arranged will be the appearance of the Oakland Technical High School

ATTEMPT BURGLARIES.
ALABAMA, March 3.—Two attempted burglaries were reported to the police, but nothing was done. B. Shaw of 192 Broadway, found that a jimmy had been used on the front door of the home, but entrance was not gained. A G. Lemcke of 1716 Santa Clara avenue reported that a marauder was in the basement of his home. The police investigated, but could find no one.

'Mary Jane's Pa' by High School Cast

HAYWARD, March 3.—The Sword and Torch Dramatic club will produce the comedy "Mary Jane's Pa" in the high school auditorium this evening. The cast has been coached by J. Boyd Oliver of the English club at the University of California and the various roles are said to be particularly well filled. Preceding the play the Orpheus Choral club will render a Spanish song, "Estudiantina." Miss Hanna is leader of the choir which consists of twenty voices. The school skit club, which has been coached for two weeks by Miss Gamble, will render songs between the acts. The cast in "Mary Jane's Pa" is: Hiram Perkins, Edward Strobbridge, Bona Preston, Charles Quist, Harriet Sheridan, Eugene Collins, Joel Skinner, Lloyd Russell, Star Skinner, Eugene Pincini, Amos Whipple, Walter Herman, Claude Whitcomb, John Robinson, "Lue" Wilcox, Roy Oliver, Eugene Merryfield, Eugene Strobbridge, Llewellyn Green, Jack Cooper, Porth Perkins, Mary Johnson, Lucille Perkins, Lois Lawler, Mary Jane Perkins, Evelyn Flores, Ivy Wilson, Minnie Muller, Miss Faxon, Ruth Cooper, Understudy, Miss Catherine Crosby. Villagers: Boys: A. Fischer, L. Rosenberg, M. Thorpe, M. Kerr, A. Cooper, Chas. M. Martin, Miss E. Wiley, Miss H. Hogrefe.

Dr. Kirby Smith Now Active Head of Work

Dr. Kirby Smith, who was yesterday appointed city health officer to succeed Dr. R. M. Higgins, assumed charge of the health office today and was introduced to the heads of divisions in his department by Commissioner P. E. Jackson. Commissioner Jackson issued instructions that the custom of having the food and market, water, dairy and meat inspection bureau send reports direct to his office instead of to the health officer should be discontinued, and ordered that all should report direct to Dr. Smith. Dr. Smith announced that he intended to give all his time for some weeks to the service of the city, to get the health department "in shape." He will make a careful survey of the department, and will then prepare recommendations for Commissioner Jackson.

To Drop 'S' Must Drop Postmaster

Resignation Must Come Before Name Change

WILLOWS, March 3.—In reply to a request by Willows citizens, made to the United States Postoffice Department at Washington, to change the name of the postoffice here from "Willow" to "Willows," to correspond with the name of the town, information has been received that it will be necessary for the postmaster, I. J. Proulx, to resign before the change can be made.

As soon as the postmaster resigns, says the Postoffice Department, he will be immediately reappointed, and the new name used. Proulx has not yet said what he will do.

Moratorium Planned for British Soldiers

LONDON, March 3.—The Daily Express says that the government has definitely decided to recommend a moratorium for contractual obligations, such as rents and insurance, for all men in the army or navy. The newspaper adds that the announcement, in the form of a proposed law, will be made in the House of Commons next week.

Obregon, Carranza Commander, Married

DOUGLAS, Ariz., March 3.—General Alvaro Obregon, commander-in-chief of the de facto government troops in Mexico, and Senorita Maria Tapia, daughter of a wealthy Sonoran rancher, were married yesterday at Hermosillo, the capital of Sonora, according to advices received here by Ivan G. Telever, the Mexican consul.

Thirty Million Is Prize Court Fund

LONDON, March 3.—The naval prize fund derived from the sale of contraband goods seized by the British navy and condemned by prize courts now amounts to over $30,000,000. This fund will be distributed among all men of the navy after the war.

MASQUERADE DANCE. The leap year dance given at Maple Hall last evening by Court U. S. Foresters of America was voted a success by those participating and due credit was given to the committee for the able manner in which the dance was conducted. Over three hundred couples enjoyed the dance.

TO DANCE AT HOTEL. Students of the Polytechnic College of Engineering will entertain tonight at a dance, to be given at the Hotel Oakland, as the official affair of the student body. Several hundred guests will attend the affair.

GERMAN GENERAL DIES. LONDON, March 3.—A dispatch from Lausanne to the Central News says that the German General von Lanckenhausen has died from wounds received while fighting before Verdun.

Conserve Leaves of Alfalfa, Is Advice

BERKELEY, March 3.—So harvest alfalfa as to conserve the leaves. If you want nutritious hay, such is the moral pointed by Prof. M. E. Jaffe of the division of nutrition of the University of California. "He says that a sample of alfalfa hay taken from a stack at the Stockton State Hospital shows 11 per cent protein. This percentage is about that which every sample of first-class alfalfa hay should yield, but many samples analyzed do not yield 10 per cent protein. The difference between the protein the hay contains and what it should contain, is due to two main causes: the admixture of other hays, and carelessness in harvesting, bringing about a preponderance of stalks of the alfalfa with a minimum amount of leaf."

Germans to Raise New Sum on Tobacco

BERLIN, March 3.—The government's tobacco bill, published today, is designed to raise about 100,000,000 marks new revenue. The schedule shows heavy increases in customs and excise taxes. The report accompanying the bill estimates that a grade costing about 55 marks will pay a duty of nearly 150. Excise is raised to a lesser degree proportionately, thereby increasing protection—domestic from 50 to 91 marks per metric hundredweight. The duty on chewing tobacco and snuff is doubled. The internal revenue on cigarettes has been increased 50 per cent on the cheaper grades and 25 per cent on the higher grades.

Portuguese Flag Is Up on German Ships

LONDON, March 3.—Lloyds' agent at Bombay reports that the Portuguese flag has been hoisted on all the German steamships in the Arabian Sea, and that the Germans who were aboard have been interned at Panjim.

Panjim, or New Goa, is the capital of the Portuguese colony of Goa, in India. It was recently reported that the Portuguese government, after requisitioning all the German and Austrian ships lying in Portuguese harbors, had given orders that all Teuton vessels in the Portuguese colonies should likewise be taken over and put under the Portuguese flag.

To Review Work of Church Missions

Missionary work in China, as conducted by the Women's Board of Missions, will be discussed Monday at Hotel Oakland at a meeting of the Chinese Christian Institute. Pastors from all parts of the bay will attend the dinner and business session to follow. Superintendent Victor M. Davis of the institute will be in charge of the meeting. The present day work in Chinese missions will be described and plans for the extension of the work, after the plan of the work of the Laymen's Missionary Movement, will be outlined.

Justices Demand Salary Warrants

AUBURN, March 3.—County Auditor C. D. McKinley has been served with a notice to appear before the Third District Appellate Court March 13 to show cause why he should not be required to issue warrants to the justices of the peace of Placer county for their salaries. This notice results from an action filed by Attorney and Justice Lee Gray of Colfax on behalf of the justices. McKinley has held up the salaries of the justices until the question of legality of the act of the legislature fixing these salaries is determined.

WRITER-QUEEN OF RUMANIA IS DEAD

"Carmen Sylva," Loved Ruler, Succumbs to Brief Illness.

LONDON, March 3.—A Bucharest dispatch, received by Reuters' Telegram Company by way of Amsterdam, says that the Queen Mother Elizabeth of Rumania (Carmen Sylva) died yesterday.

The pen name, "Carmen Sylva," by which the Queen Mother Elizabeth of Rumania was most widely known, was chosen by her in expression of her love for song and the woods. She was one of the most charming figures in the courts of Europe, and practically the only one of recent generations to gain fame as a poet.

WAS COUNTRY GIRL. In her own words, she was born "far from a throne," for, although she was a princess of Wied, one of the many tiny principalities with which Germany abounded, her youth was that of an ordinary robust country girl, who learned to cook and sew, and who romped in the open with her companions at the village school.

She was born December 29, 1843, and in her childhood she showed predilection for the poetical fancies that had such an influence on her later life. She absorbed innumerable fairy stories, and, with some of her own imagination added, she delighted her playmates with her fancies. At home she received Spartan training, and with a father who was an invalid for

Elks Name Officers for Ensuing Year

Milo E. Hickey, prominent worker for a number of years in Elksdom, was last night elected exalted ruler of Oakland Lodge No. 171, at the annual election held in the lodge clubrooms. The other officers were named as follows: Esteemed leading knight, R. H. Hammond; esteemed loyal knight, Herbert J. Anderson; esteemed tecturing knight, Harry C. Hutchinson; secretary, H. A. Whelden; treasurer, W. W. Landon; tiler, Fred J. Johnson, and trustee, A. C. Hodges. Ezra W. Decoto, who retires as exalted ruler when the newly elected ruler is installed, was elected delegates to the grand lodge which meets in Baltimore next July. Fred Hooper was named the alternate delegate. The installation of the new officers will take place the first Thursday in April.

VIOLIN OVER 150 YEARS OLD. KING CITY, Mo., March 3.—An old violin that is more than 150 years old is the property of William Parks, of this place, and because of its age and history it has been on exhibition in a store window during the past week. The violin has been in the possession of the Park family for eighty-eight years, and its present owner can trace its ownership back sixty-two years before his grandfather bought it. How much older than that it is he cannot say.

ILL FOR WEEK. The Queen Mother was under the treatment of three doctors and about three weeks ago returned to Bucharest from Curtea de Arges, in Wallachia, where King Charles is buried. A week ago she became ill and inflammation of the lungs quickly opened.

Early yesterday morning there seemed to be a slight improvement, but soon the Queen became unconscious and died within a few hours. King Ferdinand and Queen Marie spent much time with the Dowager Queen.

Spring Fever Is Call of the Wild

So Says Secretary of Health Board

SACRAMENTO, March 3.—Spring fever is not a disease, but an expression of a desire to chuck one's job and answer the call of the wild, according to Dr. W. A. Sawyer, secretary of the State Board of Health. "Whether man is descended from a monkey or from Adam and Eve, who roamed about the garden of Eden, there is that inherent longing to play at being a wild animal in the spring first appears," said Dr. Sawyer. "It is certain that our forefathers, whether man or monkey, used to celebrate the opening of spring by lazily basking in the sun, and it is that longing on our part to do likewise which we call spring fever."

Derby Disappointed in Recruiting Plan

LONDON, March 3.—Keen disappointment as to the results of recruiting under the voluntary scheme proposed by him, was expressed in the House of Lords yesterday by the Earl of Derby, former chief of the recruiting service. The earl laid the chief blame for the failure to achieve the full results at which he had aimed to the easy exceptions of single men, belonging especially to the starved trades—men required for work on necessities required by the government—and agriculturists. He made an emphatic plea to the government to prevent backsliding of military age from evading military service by transferring themselves to specialized occupations, and declared that a strong effort was necessary to obtain a requisite number of fighting men, without whom the empire might fall. Agriculturists, the Earl of Derby said, were the principal class to avail themselves of exemption.

Women Call on Would-Be Suicide

Charles Elliott Is Given Delicacies

Lying on his cot in the Emergency Hospital hovering between life and death, Charles Elliott, alias Small, who attempted suicide while in the county jail under sentence of seven years in prison, is daily being made the recipient of favors from women callers who bring him fruit, grape juice and other delicacies, but who refuse to give their names. According to Mr. H. E. Frank, the visitor number about five per day, some young, some old, some good-looking and others not so comely. Elliott was formerly employed by the moral sound of the police department in gathering evidence against women violators of the lodging house ordinances. At any rate, the patient is popular among those who are seeking to nurse him back to health.

New York Police in Gambling Den Raid

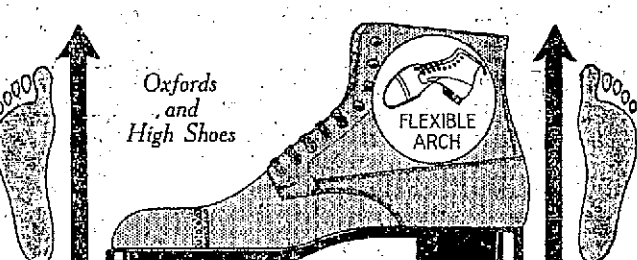

NEW YORK, March 3.—The police began an active crusade yesterday against gambling resorts in the financial district. Fifteen men in an alleged poolroom, where there were a number of racing charts, were arrested in a raid.

REPUBLICAN HARMONY.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., March 3.—Leaders of the Republican factions of Tennessee, after twelve hours of stormy sessions, last night agreed upon a peace pact, whereby J. Will Taylor is to become national committeeman and John J. Gore of Galveston is to succeed J. S. Beasley as chairman of the state Republican executive committee. The action, it was announced, was taken in the interest of party harmony.

People all over America will attend this great event at the Hoosier stores, and we have had to prepare weeks ahead to get a special allotment of Hoosiers from the factory for our own home folks. The sale starts tomorrow, and will last all week, if our supply of cabinets lasts. Those who come first are sure of being supplied at once. If you don't want to wait for your cabinet, then please don't put off your visit to our store.

Remember there are Hoosiers for farms, camps, apartments, big and little kitchens, for window spaces and the center of big kitchens, No further need for old-fashioned, built-in, uncleanable cupboards.

See the Demonstration of Hoosier's 40 Labor-saving Features

125 Feet Window Display

Every woman who wants to be up-to-date in household affairs will want to see this demonstration. You will want to see what expert men and women have achieved in cutting your kitchen work in two. How a Hoosier lets you sit down with 400 articles all handily arranged at your finger's-ends. How it ends incessant walking back and forth to gather supplies and put them away each meal.

Hoosier's Full View Roll Doors don't slide into pockets or enclosures where dirt and vermin collect in the average cabinet. Come see how you can lift out these doors for cleaning.

Domestic Science Experts have designed and located every Hoosier convenience exactly at your fingers' ends. Skilled mechanics and inventors have perfected the many working features.

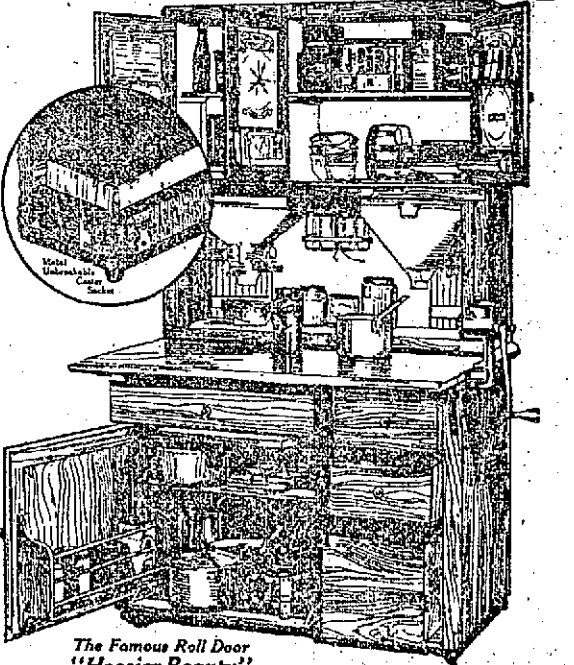

Nothing Has Been Overlooked

that could improve its convenience or add to your comfort. That's why a million women use and praise the Hoosier Kitchen Cabinet for the hours of time and miles of steps it saves them. You can easily roll the Hoosier about on its ball-bearing casters, and the metal sockets can't break. These, and other Hoosier Gold Medal features, will be demonstrated to all the folks who call tomorrow. Those who are not ready to buy won't be expected to. We will scarcely have enough cabinets to last the week out, anyway.

But we want you to come and learn the inside facts about kitchen cabinets. If you missed this demonstration at the San Francisco Fair, this is your chance to see what interested thousands of people.

Come tomorrow and bring your friends.

Love Knot Tied On Briny Deep Fresno Romance Told by Couple

A romance of the Exposition has just come to light with the second marriage of Miss Thelma Cross to George T. Kasher, of Fresno, graduate of St. Mary's college in Oakland and well known in this city.

The bride is a daughter of Mrs. Ross Cross of Bakersfield and has relatives in Oakland where last fall she renewed a childhood friendship with young Kasher. They became engaged and agreed on a secret marriage. But both were under age, Miss Cross being but 18 and Kasher only 20.

However, at the Exposition one afternoon they decided to be married at sea, where ago is discounted by Cupid. They chartered a tug and somewhere near the Farallones were married by Captain Hanson on August 20. Later they returned to their respective homes, keeping the wedding a secret.

Thousands to Face Income Tax Penalty

Fines approximating several hundred dollars may be levied by Collector of Internal Revenue Joseph J. Scott as the result of failure of approximately 4000 corporations and at least 8000 individuals to file returns of income under the federal income tax law within the time prescribed by law.

The receipt of returns without added penalty closed at midnight on Wednesday. The law automatically adds a 50 per cent penalty and the collector may assess an optional penalty of a fine of from $50 to $1000 unless the individual or corporation can secure an extension of time upon a showing that illness or the absence of an officer to verify a return prevented filing.

MISS AIDA BAXTER, WHO WILL BE GUEST OF HONOR AT THE DANCE MISS KATHERINE FOX WILL GIVE IN PIEDMONT THIS EVENING.—Fraser photo.

The wedding of Miss Marie Tyson and Mr. Frank Kales will take place in June and will be one of the important events of the summer. Both Miss Tyson and her fiance are favorites in society, and since the announcement of their engagement a number of informal parties have been planned for them.

Details of the wedding are not yet arranged but it will probably be a large affair with bridesmaids and ushers, and a reception at the Tyson home in Alameda where Mrs. Harry Wells (Jean Tyson), was bride at a brilliant ceremony a few seasons ago.

DANCE THIS EVENING.

A merry party for the younger set will be the dance to be given this evening by Miss Katherine Fox, daughter of Col. and Mrs. John Fox, in honor of Miss Aida Baxter. About 50 guests will be entertained at Alhambra hall, among them classmates of both the hostess and guest of honor at Miss Merriam's school. Included in the guest list are Miss Dorcas Alberts, Miss Nancy Page, Miss Lucille Gouaux, Miss Leonora Gray, Miss Vera Berthel, Miss Lorene Kliney, Miss Helen Rosenberg, Miss Grace Ziegler, Miss Cecil Bump, Miss Lola Walker, Miss Margaret Baker, Miss Gladys Drege, Miss Marion Dillan, Miss Margaret Webster, Miss Flora Edwards, Miss Elsa Von Hurst, Miss Jewel Gardner, Miss Jessie Channing, Miss Martha Gallagher, Miss Flor Grover, Miss Genevieve Bush, Miss Bernice Dickenson, Miss Helen Mathewson, Miss Marion Lyman, Miss Margaret Noble, Miss Virginia Vargas, Miss Bernhardt Proctor, George Grant, Gregory Lighthouse, Howard Baxter, John Chastnut, Ed Engle, Hal Davis, Howard Elliot, Ambrose Edwards, Lucine Rice, Bulkeley, Harry Ray, Raymond Gallagher, James Dye, Otto Bush, Arthur Adams, Mrs. Mary Andrew Gallagher, Maxine Maxwell, Cliff Lundberg, John Ewer, Kenneth Proctor, Mortimer Smith, Sherman

Dana, Dada Valentine, Hiland Himmann, Ambrose McDonald, Edward Young, Frank Stevenson, Philip Vincent, Otto Stoll, Sanford Gray, Jefferson Lankey, Wallace Brochauer, Frank Smith, Roland Thompson.

MRS. FILLMORE TO DEPART.
Mrs. Pearl Cawston Fillmore whose trip to Honolulu was deferred by her recent illness, will sail this month for the islands to be absent several weeks.

ARRIVE FROM EAST.

Mrs. James Keeney and Miss Helen Keeney arrived yesterday from the east where they spent the winter with Mrs. Keeney's sister, Mrs. George Harding in Philadelphia. Miss Keeney, who is a sister of Mr. Charles Keeney of Vernon Heights, was with her the exclusive set of Philadelphia where she was much entertained. She will be one of Mrs. Templeton Crocker's ladies in waiting at the Alhambra Crocker Tuesday evening.

BAL MASQUE.
Every year the Benedicts of Claremont give a ball masque and this year tomorrow evening the 1916 party will take place at the Twentieth Century Club. Every one will be in costume and masks will be worn until midnight. The members will entertain a number of their friends as guests on this occasion.

MISS PALMER CONVALESCING.
Miss Alice Palmer who is convalescing from her recent illness, will leave in a day or two for a fortnight's visit in the mountains.

ATTEND DINNER DANCE.
Among those who enjoyed the dinner dance at Hotel Oakland the other evening were members of the Seton Club. In the party were Miss Clara Anderson, Miss Grace Frye, Miss Estelle Wayne, Miss Eleanor Mulvaney, Miss Nell Orr, Miss Effie Hatcher, Miss Jeanette Fulcher, Miss Teresa Schmitt, Miss Helen Patterson, Miss Bertha Holt, Miss Rita Schwartz, Messrs. W. Vaughan, W. Wilson, Lloyd Larsson, Charles Gallagher, C. Emil Warren, Warren, Ray Sheehan, E. J. Sank and C. Lauffer.

INFORMAL PARTY.
Dr. and Mrs. S. S. Johnson entertained a number of their friends at an informal reception at their home in Sixty-fifth avenue several evenings ago. After a program of music dancing was enjoyed.

LAURIER CLUB DANCE.
Members of the Laurier Club and their friends will enjoy a dance at the Key Route Inn this evening.

BENEFIT CARD PARTY.
The ladies of the Laurier Club have planned a card party to be given tomorrow at the parish hall, Sixteenth avenue and Sixteenth street. The affair is for the benefit of the Tabernacle Society of the parish.

SETS WEDDING DATE.
One of the March brides will be Miss Mignon De Vries, who has set Sunday, March 26, as the date of her wedding to Mr. Oliver Hamlin, who is a son of Dr. and Mrs. O. J. Hamlin of Oakland. The ceremony will take place at the De Vries home in Piedmont and will be followed by a reception for a limited number of guests. There will be several bridal attendants.

Husband Made Her Work; Asks Divorce

SAN FRANCISCO, March 2.—Because her husband made her work, Mrs. M. J. Murdock yesterday filed suit for divorce against George J. Murdock, secretary and part owner of the Consolidated Mattress Manufacturing company.

On motion of William P. Herron, attorney for Mrs. Murdock, an injunction was issued returnable before Judge Shattell next Friday in which Murdock is forbidden to dispose of any of the property until the suit is tried. Mrs. Murdock says her husband's salary is $250 a month. She asks the court to fix alimony.

The Murdocks were married five years ago.

Slattery Unable to Deliver His Speech

CHICAGO, March 2.—Joseph Slattery, a former Catholic priest, lecturing under the auspices of the Guardians of Liberty, whose meeting was broken up by a disorderly crowd here Wednesday night, was again unable to deliver his address last night.

He was to have addressed a meeting at Oakland hall, on the South Side, but the agent of the building, fearing there might be a repetition of last night's demonstration, cancelled the contract with Slattery.

W. F. Bigelow, state guardian of the organization in Illinois, was followed from the hall when he left for the purpose of raising another auditorium in the neighborhood, by a crowd, which used threatening language. Policemen were present.

Slattery had not left his hotel when he received a telephone message that Oakland hall was not available. An attempt to hold a meeting in a North Side hall will be made tonight, it was said.

Many Planning to Hear Gentle's Voice

The announcement by Conductor Paul Steindorff that Miss Alice Gentle, the world-renowned prima donna, would sing at the next "pop" concert, which will be given at the Oakland municipal auditorium on Sunday afternoon, March 12, has aroused a great deal of interest among music lovers of all the bay cities. It is taken for granted that by securing an artist of her caliber that Steindorff may be said to have placed these concerts upon the highest possible musical plane and made them a musical feature long to be remembered.

Since Steindorff gave the first concert of the series early in January he has worked with the one aim of giving the music lovers the greatest musical selections rendered by the finest artists to be secured in the west. He has taken advantage of the present visit to the coast of Miss Gentle and she announces that he has still other surprises which will elate the music lovers and opera goers.

$800 FOR BIRD CAGE.

NEW YORK, March 2.—Bird cages that are works of art, made of ivory, jade, lacquer and precious and semi-precious stones, were shown here for the first time during a sale of East Indian art at the American Art Galleries. You who own canaries in brass wire cages, hear that one of the cages brought $800!

Standard Doubles Its Earnings in Indiana

CHICAGO, March 3.—The Standard Oil Company of Indiana in 1915 earned 53.32 per cent on its outstanding $30,000,000 stock, as compared with 21.96 per cent in 1914. This was revealed at the stockholders' meeting held at Whiting, Ind., yesterday. The company paid $3,500,000 dividend, despite which the surplus increased $22,898,376, making the total $28,793,042.

LEE'S COUSIN DIES.

DALLAS, Tex., March 3.—James William Lee, a cousin of General Robert E. Lee, died here last night, aged 71. Mr. Lee, a native of Louisiana, entered the Confederate army at the age of 18 and fought throughout the war between the states.

Lynching Threatens Yuba Horse Thieves

YUBA CITY, March 3.—Horse thieves got busy last night near Knight's Landing and stole nine head of valuable horses from the ranch of D. L. Nolan and made unsuccessful attempts to steal from other ranches. Sheriff Noyes of Sutter county has organized a posse and is pursuing the rustlers, working in conjunction with the Yolo and Yuba county authorities.

The officials believe that the rustlers are part of an organized band which has made away with several animals in the three counties during the past two months. The ranchers are so aroused over the numerous thefts of horses and other livestock that they are considering the formation of a vigilance committee and applying early-day lynch law to the offenders.

THE EARLY SPRING
MAKES CHERRY'S STORE VERY POPULAR

—because women who lay claim to dressing stylishly are so thankful to be allowed to USE THEIR CREDIT. You know how it is yourself; if you had to depend entirely on stores that demand cash, you'd be languishing in winter clothes for several weeks yet. But, of course, that hardship is completely eliminated by CHERRY'S Installment System. All a woman needs to do is just pay part of the cost of her Spring Suit, Dress or Coat, and arrange a simple, convenient schedule of weekly or monthly payments.

CHERRY'S new offerings are fascinating and exquisite. The Spring Dresses are especially beautiful. Any one of them would make a charming costume for the most critical woman you know. The Suits are lovely, too. And when you see the Sport Clothes in CHERRY'S advance shipments, you'll be glad that outdoor days are here again so that you can wear these dainty, girlish Corduroys!

CHERRY'S invite you to visit their shop at 515 Thirteenth street, between Washington and Clay streets. This store is devoted exclusively to ladies' goods, while just across the street, at 523 Thirteenth street, is the men's store. CHERRY'S also have two stores in San Francisco, one at 1009 Market street and the other at 2400 Mission street. These stores handle both men's and ladies' goods. Other stores—Portland, Los Angeles and Sacramento.—Advertisement.

GIRL IS BRAVE IN HER LIVING DEATH

Magdalena McLean, Leper at 17, Faces Years of Isolation.

SEACACUS, N. J., March 3.—The pitious Asiatic city, "Unclean! Unclean!" may echo over the ocean, when, at dusk, Magdalena McLean, leper, is released to take a stroll—alone.

Isolated in the Hudson County Hospital for Contagious Diseases here, this 17-year-old West Indian girl is steeling herself for a life every day of which, physicians say, may be passed in seclusion.

Leprosy marked the girl when as a child she played on Barbadoes Island. Soon after her parents moved to Jersey City, several years ago, a rash appeared upon her body, but not until she was taken to the Skin and Cancer Hospital of New York, three years ago, was her disease diagnosed as leprosy. The authorities decided to move her to an isolated ward in the institution here. Not till then was the girl told she was a leper.

Seventeen years old now and made more serious and mature than girls of her age by years of seclusion with her disease, there is still the Indian beauty about her, although her face is partly disfigured and her hands spotted.

"My only worry," she said, "is about my people. They must have known all along that I was a leper, for they have always been and about me, mamma especially. When they took me away, even papa cried. When I was first shut up in my room at home I wondered why I couldn't play with my little friends, but I got used to it. I suppose I'll get used to this, too."

KEEPS OLD "PIGG."
LEESBURG, Ga., March 3.—J. Hines, who recently returned from Richmond, Va., has a plug of tobacco that is fifty-three years old.

Hines said a wealthy tobacco man of Virginia had quite a quantity of it when the war broke out between the states, and, not desirous of accepting Confederate money for it, he decided to hold it until the war was over, but the United States government placed such a high revenue on tobacco that he would not sell.

When he died he made a will that the tobacco must not be sold until the revenue was taken off, and it has never been marketed.

Depot Antiquated Word With S. P.

No Longer Will Public
Quote Pronunciation

"Depot," "Deepo," or "Daypo" are obsolete words—at least as far as the Southern Pacific is concerned.

"Call 'em stations" is the order official to employees.

No longer will the general public be able to quote as pronunciation authorities a brakeman who pronounces the word one way and a station agent who pronounces it another. They all are going to call it the same thing now—so there will be less arguments.

This is the order from headquarters, pronouncing "depot" a "dead word."

Company employees in referring to a Southern Pacific station should call it that, and not "depot." The latter is an antiquated and French word, while "station" belongs to our mother tongue.

A student asked Dr. McAllister, former president of Drexel Institute, how he pronounced "depot."

"As it spelled 'station,'" replied the scholar.

"Depot" is a dead word so far as railroads are concerned. In the larger cities it is rarely used as applied to a railroad station. More than seventy years ago Longfellow referred to a fellow-traveler who pronounced it to rhyme with teapot. Other folks said "daypo," but it was more generally called "deepo."

FINDS NAME INSURED ON EGG.
YORKTOWN, Va., March 3.—While packing eggs last fall Louis Goecker passed in his work to inscribe his name on one of them. The incident was quite forgotten until a few days ago when a letter was handed to Goecker that bore on one corner, "Return to Walter Rogers, U. S. S. Labanon, care P. M., New York City."

Rogers is first cook on the Labanon, and in preparing the crew's breakfast recently he noticed the name on the egg.

"If not too late I wish you a happy New Year," the letter said. The writer also stated that the Labanon was about to sail for Charleston and Norfolk, and later to Cuba.

Our Greatest Piano Sale

A Most Drastic Price Sacrifice of Exposition and State Building and other very fine Pianos, Player Pianos and Baby Grands for quick selling

Electric self-playing and self-expressing pianos, also pipe organs and piano stools, benches and cabinets included as well as a great accumulation of used instruments received by Eilers' Music House in part payment for prize-winning Chickering's, Kimballs, Autopiano Player Pianos, etc. Sale conducted simultaneously here and in San Francisco.

The many Exposition pianos, those used in the various State buildings and in many of the high-class concessions are to be closed out at once.

These instruments are in every way now, and they possess the added value of having been associated most intimately with the superb social successes of the hundreds of never-to-be-forgotten exposition soirees and events. The list of instruments comprises an almost limitless variety. The time given us by the manufacturers to dispose of these instruments is short, and under these circumstances we are compelled to do some very rapid piano selling. The only way to sell pianos in double-quick time is to cut price. There are occasions in the career of any business where it pays to sacrifice profit, and even part of cost, in order to get quick results. This occasion is here now. We realize that only the most drastic price cutting will accomplish our purpose at this time. Every instrument, therefore, that is included in this sale is being offered at its actual wholesale factory cost price, with freight added.

They Must Find Homes

It is not a question of making a profit here now, but simply a matter of disposing of some two hundred of the very finest and most costly of highest grade instruments quickly, as well as the many used instruments above referred to.

It will be impossible to openly quote here the astounding low prices at which we are to sell these instruments now, for it would hurt the standing of these pianos in other cities where merchants are compelled to get regular retail prices for them.

Prices as a Sample

Suffice it to say, then, that used Pianos will be almost given away; $30. for old-style ones; $80 and $95 for good playable uprights. Among the new pianos offered will be found strictly first-class cabinet grand uprights, standing four feet eight inches high, with full length duet music desk, Boston fall board and three pedals (the third a sostenuto pedal) for $235, and the plusher styles for $235, which is almost half price.

Only $6 Necessary

At these cost prices the terms of payment should not be less than $20 down and $10 a month, but for an additional 4 per cent and simple interest, any instrument below $300 in value may be had on payments of as little as $6 down and $6 monthly.

Please bear in mind that this stock is the choicest and very latest, and of the very finest and highest grade manufactured in America. This sale includes almost every catalogue style of the three greatest American piano-makers, besides those of a dozen of medium grade, and we are now offering each and every piano and player-pianos for sale for less money than regular dealers ordinarily buy them for cash.

Some Very Fancy Ones

We offer quite a few fancy strictly highest grade pianos, seven and one-half octaves, full swinging duet music desk, revolving look board, with three pedals, the third a soft or practice pedal, for only $195, actually less than half price. Finest figured Brazilian mahogany cases are $21 more. Largest cabinet grand size,

IMMENSE STOCK OF CHICKERINGS KIMBALLS Genuine AUTOPIANOS

And all other international-ly renowned makes, as well as lesser priced instruments in the greatest sale ever held.

thoroughly reliable, fully warranted upright pianos, in mahogany, mottled walnut or oak, with all latest improvements: instruments that we guarantee cannot be bought in Chicago or at the New York factories for less than $325 each, will go during this sale for $178. Ebonyized or dark cases for $22 still less, namely, $158.

All at Real Reductions

The same bona fide reductions prevail on all of the finest player pianos and baby grands. Free music rolls are given with every player piano sold at this time.

With the exception of five of the highest priced styles, the actual cost of which exceeds $350, and on which terms of payment will not be made less than $50 down and $20 a month, all pianos are for sale on payment of only $20 down and at the rate of $8 or $8 or $10 a month, according to make, style and design. See also our special offer of only $6 down.

Since all prices are based on the actual cash cost, those taking advantage of the above-named easy terms will pay interest on deferred payments at the rate of 8 per cent per annum.

Must Prove Satisfactory

Every instrument sold will be accompanied by the respective manufacturer's five years' warranty, duly countersigned by us, thus fully assuring every buyer of positive satisfaction in his or her selection.

We personally guarantee the price as well as the quality and service of every instrument in this sale, and any used piano bought of us at this time will be accepted by us within two years at the full sale price paid toward purchase price of any new Kimball or genuine Autopiano, player piano or Chickering.

Caution! Act at Once!

If you have any possible use for a piano or an organ, come at once, for general conditions are becoming prosperous now, and many will take advantage of this opportunity at this time of year. It is easy to put off coming, but let us urge you not to delay, for at these low sale prices and terms we shall no doubt convert this stock into money or contracts long before the allotted time expires. Store open day and night till stock is closed out.

St. Mary's College Cinches the Intercollegiate Title by Defeating U. of C.

ABSENT-MINDED ABNER—Life Is Only an Open and Shut Arrangement Anyhow! By WALT McDOUGALL

Reminiscences of a Veteran Sporting Editor

By MR. McDOUGALL. The other day when I wrote about the decline of cycling and the death of Jimmy Michael, the cycle king, then known the world over as "the Welsh Rarible," I thought of my first meeting with that great little fellow.

It came fully twenty years ago when "Chippy" Warburton, a famous English promoter of sports, came into my office, actually leading by the hand a bullet-headed little chap, who he proclaimed to be the greatest bicycle rider in the world.

"Chippy" was always a picturesque character after the festive rainbow, and took his enthusiasm in a good-natured way, caring little about the truth of his statements.

Subsequent events, however, demonstrated the fact that Warburton's confidence in his protégé was not misplaced.

At this time Michael was probably the best known name in the world, and had ridden with great success in every large city in the world.

He began to attract attention as a bicycle rider shortly after the invention of the safety machine.

It was not until the introduction of the present motor cycle for pace making that he became famous.

He weighed barely a hundred pounds and proved a speed devil in his hundreds of races behind the big motor, will ever forget the spectacle of the little fellow with his front wheel tucked barely three inches behind the rod of the racing machine.

For several years he was invincible at distances of from ten to thirty miles and held nearly all the records at these and intermediate distances.

Michael died in 1904. Two years before his death in Berlin he sustained a terrible fall and it was feared that his skull was fractured and that he would die.

He submitted to an operation in a Paris hospital, which had formed at the base of his brain.

He recovered but to this was attributed a slight loss of memory.

After a time Michael was able to ride as well as ever, and his later showing was such that he was selected as the most formidable opponent to meet against Bobby Walcott, in the international middle distance championship race at Madison Square Garden, which took place just a week after Michael's death.

In fact, he died on board the French liner La Savonne on his way to this country to take part in the Madison Square race. Later his body was forwarded from this country to his mother's home in England.

The cycling races which were then held in Madison Square Garden, New York, were very popular, and Corbett's old manager, Billy Brady, Pat Powers and Jim Kennedy.

Before the last tournament Brady was frozen out and he sued for a partner's share of the profits.

The court sided with him and gave Brady judgment for $17,000, which showed that the promoters had cleared more than $50,000 out of their last show.

That old promoter would be profitable these cycling tournaments had been.

WOMEN ASKED TO CHANGE DATE

NEW YORK, March 3.—Thirty of the foremost women lawn tennis players of the country have been invited by George T. Adee, president of the United States National Tennis Association, to vote on the question of changing the date of the women's national championship tournament from June 7 to a date in September.

The championships are to be played at the courts of the Philadelphia Cricket Club.

Mr. Adee, in explanation of this action, said that few of the leading women players had been expected to be playing their best game in June.

CALIFORNIA BEATS THE TAILORS. The University of California football team scored an easy victory over the Ambrose Tailors yesterday and the Berkeley diamond, winning a loose game, 4 to 2.

The blue and gold players outlasted their opponents more than two to one, forcing being the star of the day with three touchdowns.

BEST TREATMENT FOR CATARRH S. S. S. Removes the Cause.

Specialists have agreed that Catarrh is an infection of the blood. Once you get your blood cleansed of the Catarrh poisons you will be relieved of Catarrh of the bladder, throat, nose, ears, and the disagreeable breath. It was caused, in the first place, because your impure blood was easily infected. Possibly a slight cold or contact with some one who had a cold. But the point is—don't suffer with Catarrh—it is not necessary. The remedy, S. S. S., discovered over fifty years ago, tested, true and tried, is always obtainable at any drug store. It has proven its value in thousands of cases. It will do so in your case. Get S. S. S. at once and begin treatment. It is a long-term remedy. It is sure to cure. Write to the S. S. S. Co., Atlanta, Ga., for free medical advice. They will tell you how this remedy is made from the blood of literal, by washing it clean.—Advertisement.

SEALS WITHOUT CORHAN HARDLY WILL REPEAT

Los Angeles Club Looks Like Better Hitting Club Than Last Year.

Looking over the rosters of the Coast League Clubs, we do not recall ever having seen them experience such a shake-up as they have undergone this winter. The fact that there were so many ball players turned loose on the market by the collapse of the Federal League as well as the general retrenchment policy adopted over the nation by baseball managers, has enabled coast league managers to exercise a free hand in remodeling their clubs. Some extraordinary changes will be seen by fans who attend the opening games.

Of all the clubs, the Seals will present the most familiar line-up, and yet the best known player in the club—Johnny Corhan—will be listed amongst the absent. Most fans, and the writer freely confesses to be amongst them, do not look for the team to repeat this spring. We cannot help but feel that the loss of Corhan has not been offset and at this late date it is not likely that the big gap at shortstop is likely to be adequately plugged. Corhan was valuable in more ways than one. Still, we all said the same thing when the Seals lost Jimmie Johnson, and yet last year they won the flag with the famous "burglar" playing against them.

On paper, Frank Chance, seems to have assumed a club destined to set the pace from the very start. The great club has been purchased players right and left, and if he can possibly hold the team within the salary limit, he will have a major league organization in a Class A club.

STRONGER THAN EVER. Last year Los Angeles was represented by one of its strongest teams in recent years. So, to say that the Angels are better than in 1915 would necessarily be a strong statement.

Yet the bunch that Frank Chance, the new manager, has lined up for the coming season, appears to possess more hitting length without any appreciable loss of defensive ability.

Koerner, at first base, doubtless will hold over, for he batted around .320 last season. In fact, had Koerner been with the club at the start of the season, fans nourish the idea that the Angels would have topped the pennant.

Melroy, at second base, will outlast McMillen, perhaps, but the ace-tacoma had performed good service last year for the Angels and there will be no sign at the keystone.

At short and third, however, the club will be far stronger offensively, granting that Fisher of the Cubs signs his contract. Fisher is not as good a fielder as Zeb Terry, now with Chicago, but he will hit 50 points better. And either Hays of the Western League or Groggling will outlast Metzger by three or four miles.

Meggett, at pitcher, and Jackson, at catcher, are a wonderful outfield, equal only by San Francisco. It has speed and fielding ability and punch galore. Jackson is a real find. He comes from the Middle West with an excellent record.

BATTERY APPEARS STRONG. Boles, Brooks and Beaser of last year's catching crew, are back in the deck, reinforced by Wallace, a Southern League star, secured from the Chicago Cubs.

Last season's Angels flinging strength was concentrated mainly in the diamond, and a couple of promising young club artists from the East.

It is almost certain, too, that Chance will land one or two more glib-edged pitchers before April.

Yes, the Angels are a good bunch. Not since the Colorado ran amuck over the Imperial desert and threatened to leave edible catfish floating around in their ball club, have the Angels been so strong.

I see that the San Francisco club has signed Joe Corbett for another trial. I am certainly tickled to see Joe back in harness, once more, and I sincerely hope he will make good. A better fellow never wore a baseball uniform, and I can't think of a single person ever saying "I wish I was like him."

Joe was one of the best pitchers I ever worked with. I caught Joe when he was with the San Francisco club back in 1901 and we worked together like a well-oiled piece of machinery. We never had any signals between us. Joe was a fellow who never believed in the hand always told Parke Wilson, who managed the club, that the fewer signals the better off they would be. The angels, the reason Joe and I always worked without signals, I know the minute he was ready to pitch, whether it would be a fast one or a curve, and I want to say I never got that fast one of his to zipping as he did in the old days the Coast League batters will have one awful time to hit it.

Eddie Klein, former southpaw pitching member of the St. Louis Outlaw of the Western League, has signed an Oak contract and will report to Hayes Springs next week for a tryout. Klein is a youngster and is considered quite a likely loser. He twirled in 42 games for St. Louis City in 1915 and won a majority of his games, while he won ten and lost the same number in 1914, when he helped put his club in second place. Klein was out of the game last year, but the call of the diamond has brought him back and he is more than willing to receive a tryout with the Oaks.

Cliff Blankenship, the Bee manager, has signed "Long Tom" Hughes, former pitcher of the Angels, and released Jack Kilgus, former Oak and Seal.

"Dutch" Reuter, former Sacramento Coast leaguer, who is to go to Salt Lake this season, has just signed his Salt Lake contract. Reuter states he is not having any trouble with Blankenship, but says he has plenty of time in which to sign up, and that he wants to talk things over with Blankenship when he makes his appearance in California.

It is thought that Reuter will give up the pitching end of the game from now on. He has only met with fair success as a pitcher. He will try for an outfield berth on the strength of his heavy hitting.

RECORD ENTRY FOR KENTUCKY RACE

LOUISVILLE, Ky., March 2.—Entries to the forty-second annual reunion of the Kentucky Derby closed at midnight last night with what horsemen predict will be the largest number of possible starters in the history of the race. The list, however, probably will not be announced for two or three weeks. It is known that it will include all of last year's two-year-old stars.

The race this year, with $10,000 added money, will be worth approximately $60,000 to the winner.

Of the crack three-year-olds thought to have been named to go in the race are Thunderer, full brother to Regret; Dodge, George Smith, Bulke, King Neptune, Bromo, Gillies, Big Smoke, Ting-a-ling, Candler and Tom Edwards. The Derby is at a mile and a quarter for 3-year-olds.

CHIEF BENDER HEADS PHILLIE BAND

PHILADELPHIA, March 2.—Seven members of the Philadelphia National League baseball team left here today for New York where they will take a steamer for Jacksonville, Fla. Included in the party was Chief Bender, the former American League pitcher. George McQuinn, Bradline Meyer, Outfielder Paskert and Devore and Catchers Adams and Fish. Pitcher Chambers and Catcher Quinn, this year members, holding down regular places, the Saints swept all before them and lost only a game.

St. Mary's lost their first game of the season this year, St. Ignace beating them by a 22-to-9 score, but they bucked up and have won as the season progresses. The lineup follows: California—Forwards, Sharp, Spencer, Rhoades; center, Foster; guards, Penfield, Embury.

St. Mary's Forwards, Moy, Prantice; center, Hanley; guards, O'Connor, Quinn; captain, Anderson.

St. Mary's college, winners of the intercollegiate basketball title, has been challenged by Whittier, holders of the southern championship, and a series of three games will be arranged for the coast championship. The first game will be played in Los Angeles.

DECISIVE GAME TODAY. The Oakland Technical and Berkeley high school teams will decide which team will play Fremont for the A. C. A. championship this afternoon when Peterson.

RED AND BLUE WINNERS AGAIN OF CHAMPIONSHIP

Aggressiveness of Forwards Is the Undoing of California.

St. Mary's college clinched the intercollegiate basketball title last night by defeating the University of California quintet by a score of 37 to 29 at Harmon gym. The Bears held the Saints even throughout a portion of the first half and were trailing only by 10 points to 16.

The St. Mary's forward combination of Moy and Prantice, with Hanley working fine, too, got going in the second half and fairly overwhelmed the Berkeley team. St. Mary's scored 21 points to their opponents 11 in this half. This is the second time that St. Mary's has captured the intercollegiate league championship. In 1914, with Bobby Moy, Hanley and Jimmy Prantice and Quinn, this year members, holding down regular places, the Saints swept all before them and lost only a game.

AMATEUR BASEBALL

The Olympic Ball Club returned from the Hawaiian Islands late yesterday, greatly delighted over the trip. According to "Speed" Mardel, the young California pitcher, the "O" players dropped only four out of twelve games played, and these were lost just after the team had arrived and had not found their sea legs yet. "Speed" went against the best teams of the islands and lost three games, winning two. Martin was defeated by the Chinese University nine, and twice by the First Infantry team.

Lefty Howdige won three games and lost one, defeating the St. Louis College team once and the Honolulu Club twice. The Honolulu team defeated Mardel. A Schampel won all three games he pitched, winning from the Twenty-fifth Infantry, the crack army team of the islands and the St. Louis nine.

Kennedy led the Olympians in hitting, getting more than twenty singles, including two home runs, one three-bagger and four doubles. Barker was next in order. Benn's sensational put around team's play, and Trumula, in the final game of the series, made two running catches in right field that were next to marvelous.

NEW DOPE BOOK OUT. The publishers of the baseball magazine have just issued a booklet entitled "Who's Who in Baseball," which is the very last word in the major league dope sheets. This brochure is invaluable to the sporting writer and the fan for it presents in alphabetical order the records of every major league player for ten years back. A newstand edition will be out March 20 and will be sold for fifteen cents.

CHRISTIE HAS FIFTEEN RULES FOR TRACK TEAM

California Trainer Lays Down Commandments for His Cinder Squad.

BERKELEY, March 3.—Walter Christie, track coach of the University of California and one of the best-known authorities on track and field events on the Pacific Coast, has issued a series of fifteen rules which he expects his track candidates to follow during their period of training. Christie is not a strict coach in the sense of having his men do a certain routine of work each day, but leaves the greater part of the training up to the men themselves. However, his rules cover the general portion of the spring work. They are as follows:

1. Keep regular hours.
2. Get nine hours' sleep if possible.
3. Eat slowly and chew vigorously.
4. Avoid rich greasy foods.
5. Drink slowly.
6. Cultivate regular habits.
7. Treat the athletic apparatus as if it were your own.
8. Use common sense in training practice.
9. Keep off track in your street shoes.
10. Do a thing today, don't put it off until tomorrow, for tomorrow will be too late.
11. Get at your studies and study for your assistance is needed.
12. Get behind each event and boost.
13. Put heart and soul in your event and study form; also like the event.
14. Always leave the track feeling as if you had not had enough work.
15. Competition makes the athlete; get all you can.

BEAVERS SIGN HOOK. PORTLAND, Ore., March 2.—Byron Houck, a right-handed pitcher, formerly with the Philadelphia Americans, but whose affiliation for the past two seasons was with the Brooklyn Federals, was signed today by the Portland team. Houck's home is here.

Fisher is not as good a fielder as Zeb Terry, now with Chicago, but he will hit 50 points better. And either Hays of the Western League or Groggling will outlast Metzger by three or four miles.

Meggett, at pitcher, and Jackson, at catcher, are a wonderful outfield, equal only by San Francisco. It has speed and fielding ability and punch galore. Jackson is a real find. He comes from the Middle West with an excellent record.

BATTERY APPEARS STRONG. Boles, Brooks and Beaser of last year's catching crew, are back in the deck, reinforced by Wallace, a Southern League star, secured from the Chicago Cubs.

Last season's Angels flinging strength was concentrated mainly in the diamond, and a couple of promising young club artists from the East.

It is almost certain, too, that Chance will land one or two more glib-edged pitchers before April.

Yes, the Angels are a good bunch. Not since the Colorado ran

SINGER IS ANGERED AT IMPOSTER 'SON'

Melba Says That Nevada Man Is Pretender Trading on Name.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 3.—If this should be read by the man in Carson City, Nev., who says he is a son of Madame Nellie Melba, the prima donna, he will take it as a hint to travel still further back into the sagebrush. The singer, who arrived in San Francisco yesterday en route to Australia, told of an imposter who says he is her son with a blazing anger which will discourage the putative son if he ever encounters it.

strong, who is with her, also told of having heard of the imposter, who is supposed to have obtained money and social opportunities in Nevada on this representation.

Madame Melba said: "This self-proclaimed son of mine is an imposter. The worst of it is that he is said to be about 25 years old. By that time I should have been married when I was 10 years old!"

"This is not the first time I have heard of his activities. Some time ago a man called at the box office of the New York Metropolitan Opera House with the brazen statement that he was Madame Melba's son. He followed this up with a request for money."

Madame Melba here called Frank Rigo, her manager, and her son. Both had crossed the trail of the bogus son.

"I object to any disreputable man going about masquerading as my son and trading on my reputation with the plea that I am starving him," Madame Melba continued. "Please write a telegram for me to the Chief of Police, Carson City, asking him to let me know whether this man is still masquerading as Melba's son, and tell the Chief that Melba has only one son, and that the other man is an imposter."

Mail Clerks Elect Officers by Ballot

At the regular meeting of San Francisco local No. 20, Brotherhood of Railway Postal Clerks, held at the Hotel Argonaut there yesterday the returns of the first regular annual election of officers by mail ballot were canvassed and the following declared elected: Hugh Sparks, president; Edward N. Benton, vice-president; Frank J. Gussett, secretary-treasurer; Leonard Rosenberg, sergeant-at-arms; Reeco B. Marshall, Oscar J. Johnson and Nile G. Porter, executive committeemen. These will be installed at the first regular meeting in April. Local No. 20's membership includes residents of the several bay city localities.

SMOOTH CROOK IN DIAMOND THEFT

Chicago Firm Victim of Big $50,000 Job; Suspect Escapes.

CHICAGO, March 3.—Detectives are investigating today the theft here yesterday of jewels valued at between $25,000 and $50,000 from the shop of Dreier & Co. Edward L. Smith, manager of the concern, reported that a young man entered the shop and requested to be shown some large diamonds. Mr. Smith said he set out three trays of rings and turned his back to obtain another. The young man, who wore a flowing coat, then said he had decided not to purchase and hurriedly left the shop. Shortly afterward Mr. Smith discovered that one tray of stones was missing.

During his examination of the jewels, Mr. Smith said the man he believes to be the robber conversed easily and handled various objects in the shop leisurely.

In the three trays offered for inspection were diamonds, rubies, about $150,000, according to Smith. Detectives assigned to the case assumed that the man slipped one of the trays under his loose topcoat.

Mr. Smith identified a photograph at the bureau of identification as that of his customer. It was that of a New York thief, with a nationwide reputation, the police assert. Detectives today were watching every outgoing train for the man, who has been reported to have been in Chicago recently.

Millionaire Hart Buys Boxes at Show

More than 100 pretty Alameda county nurses will occupy ten boxes at the benefit Fashion Show ball in the municipal auditorium the evening of March 17. They will be the guests of H. H. Hart, multi-millionaire mining man and philanthropist, who yesterday sent a check for $50 to the general committee in charge of the affair and reservations for the ten boxes.

Hart is a strong friend of the lady composing the Exposition Boys' Band, for the benefit of which the ball is being given. Following the trip two years ago to Portland, where the band won every award in competition with similar organizations from all parts of the country, Hart sent the organization a check for $100 and a standing invitation for them to call on him for aid whenever it is needed.

The millionaire's hobby is boys, and it is his wont to take note of some deserving lad without family ties and adopt him. There are something like fourteen boys in his luxurious Berkeley home at the present time, all of whom love him dearly for what he is doing for them and all of them receiving from him all the care that a real father could give.

Other downtown business concerns are purchasing boxes and turning them over to charitable institutions. The Broadway cafeteria yesterday purchased a box and offered the ten seats to members of the old peoples' home. The old folks will be taken to and from the auditorium in machines offered by society and business people interested in the big charity event.

Stanford 'Tubbing' Charges Are Dropping

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Cal., March 3.—No further action will be taken by the University authorities. It was announced today by President Wilbur in the case of D. M. Ross of Modesto, the student who was "tubbed" for refusing to do fresh, four sophomores were reprimanded by the student council.

J. P. and Mrs. Ross, the father and mother of the tubbed student, called on President Wilbur and expressed their satisfaction at the way in which the matter had been handled by the student council and agreed to let the matter drop, provided there was no repetition of the hazing.

Young Ross, who has returned to college, has withdrawn the charges preferred before a Palo Alto justice of the peace against the sophomores who forcibly bathed him.

NEW COMET FOUND.

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., March 3.—The discovery of a small comet by Neujmin was announced yesterday in a cablegram to the Harvard Observatory from the Professor of the Imperial Observatory at Pulkowa, Russia.

Jurisdiction of Coroner Attacked

NEW YORK, March 3.—Summonses by Coroner Wagner of Brooklyn, commanding officers of the New York navy yard to appear at the recent inquest over the victims of submarine E-2, should have been ignored, Secretary of the Navy Daniels advised Rear-Admiral Usher, commander of the yard, by letter yesterday. "Since it appears," wrote the secretary, "that no deaths as a result of the E-2 accident occurred outside the limits of the naval reservation, the coroner was wholly without jurisdiction to conduct any investigation of the accident in question and that his subpoenas in the case were of no legal force."

Coroner Wagner insisted last night that he had acted within his rights, adding that a law passed in 1883 gave the state jurisdiction in such cases.

Owners Win Fight Against State Work

SACRAMENTO, Cal., March 3.—In a lengthy decision handed down today by Judge Emmet Sullivan of the state supreme court, the owners of the Sutter county levee, reclamation district number 1800, were ordered to continue the work on the north and north half of the East levee that the Sutter Basin on the ground around the Sutter Basin, a natural water course, the continuation of the Sacramento river and Butte Creek or both. The suit technically known as Samuel Gray et al versus Reclamation District 1800 et al, was brought by the individual property owners of levee district No. 1 in Sutter county, on the grounds that the construction of the levees would raise the flood plane, thereby flooding the lands of levee district No. 1.

The settlers in Sutter county built their homes, contends the decision on the theory that the basin was a water course. The State has no rights superior to those of a citizen, declares the decision, in raising or the contention that as the State has ordered the work to be completed the plaintiffs could not prevent it.

As an immediate effect it is probable that the five or six dredgers which have been at work on the north levee of the basin will be withdrawn from that portion of the work.

Burglars in Home of Graft Accuser

CHICAGO, March 3.—Burglars today "jimmied" the front door of the Page-Waller Eaton's house on the South Side and carried away jewelry valued at $200. Among the articles taken, according to the police report, were many heirlooms Mrs. Eaton prized beyond price.

Mrs. Eaton was head of the social survey department of the public welfare bureau, of which Mrs. Louise Osborne Rowe is the chief, and brought charges of split salary against Mrs. Rowe, the inquiry into which will be resumed today.

Hints for Automobile Owners

Motoring Department, The TRIBUNE: I have a 1913 Ford with a 1912 Holley carburetor. I cannot run under twelve miles an hour without it missing and almost stops. Have to open the needle valve one-and-a-half turns, but to twenty miles or over must turn the valve back about half a turn. The compression is good. What can I do for the trouble?

W. G.

Perhaps the ignition is weak at slow engine speed. Test the spark in order to determine this. Then again, carburetor may be in need of repair. The installation of a few new parts may be necessary to eliminate air leaks about the throttle. A slight air leak at this point or at any point in the manifold or manifold gaskets would upset the carburetor mixture. Especially would this be noticed at slow engine speed.

Motoring Department, The TRIBUNE: I have an old carbide gas generator for two headlights. It fails to generate enough, although, when examined, the water drips down freely and all tubes to the lights are free. The gas is slowly generated bubbles back up through the water tank. The carbide seems all right, but the water basket is gone from the lower receptacle. Can you tell me what the matter is?

W. M.

Would suggest installing new wire basket to suspend the carbide. Also see that water drips freely. Undoubtedly you will find the gas exits clogged. These should be opened to permit the gas to flow freely. Also see that there are no sharp turns or kinks in the tubing leading to lamps. There must be an obstruction somewhere, which should be removed.

Motoring Department, The TRIBUNE: Will you please give me advice in the following case. I have a Ford and there is something wrong in the ignition system. When the engine is running it pounds and backfires. I tested it out with batteries and noticed when it is only supposed to spark on one spark plug, it gives one good spark on one spark plug, and on the other plugs just a small spark. I put on a new timer and a new distributor wire, but can't improve it any. I have a master vibrator—W. R.

Since you have installed new timer and wires, perhaps it will be advisable to have the coil units tested. If these prove to be in good condition, then it will be necessary to test the source of current, namely, at the generator. Perhaps the magnets are weak and need replacing. If car has been in service for a considerable length of time, you will undoubtedly find this necessary.

Various Forms Of Headache

"It is necessary in order to treat headaches properly to understand the causes which produce the pain," says Dr. J. W. Ray, of Blockton, Ala. Continuing, he says, "Physicians cannot even begin the treatment of a disease without knowing what causes give rise to it, and we must remember that headache is to be treated according to the same rule. We must not only be particular to give a remedy intended to counteract the cause which produces the headache, but we must also give a remedy to relieve the pain until the cause of the trouble has been removed. To answer this purpose, anti-kamnik tablets will be found a most convenient and reliable remedy. One tablet every one to three hours gives comfort and rest in the most severe cases of headache, neuralgia and particularly the headaches of women."

"When we have a patient subject to regular attacks of sick headache, we should caution him to keep his bowels regular, for nothing is better than 'Actoids,' and when to look the least sign of an oncoming attack, he should take two A-K Tablets. Such patients should always be instructed to carry a few anti-kamnik tablets, so as to have them ready for instant use. Tablets are prompt in action and can be depended on to produce relief in a very few minutes. Ask for A-K Tablets. Anti-kamnik tablets at all drugists."
